Sen. Flanders To Discuss Welfare

Vermont Republican

Will Speak On Friday

Ralph E. Flanders, Republican Senator from Vermont and member of the Institute Corporation, will speak on Friday, November 18, at 4:00 p.m. in 10-250. He will pose the question, "How Much Welfare Can We Legislate?"

Seated Flanders was elected from Vermont in November, 1946, after a career in industry and public service, which began at the age of 17, as a machinist's apprentice and draftsman in Providence and Woonsocket, Maine; director and manager of the Jones & Lamson Machine Company in Springfield, Vermont, in 1917. He has been president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, and for several years before going to the U. S. Senate served as chairman of the research committee and trustee of the Committee for Economic Development. He was vice president of the American Engineering Council in 1937, and received their Hoover Medal, and the Edward Longstreth Medal of the Franklin Institute.

took the band to play two choruses of "The Stars and Stripes Forever". An interesting comment on the proficiency of the Boston papers was the reception given to the exhibition by the local critics. Headlines ranged from "Harvard Bridge Has Horizontal Opening" (Globe) to "Tech Rot Mars Opening of Bridge" (Post). The demonstration was fairly orderly until about 11 p.m. when returning students began placing obstacles in the road (inserting themselves) in an attempt to close the bridge again. Important elements in the crowd, and the usual tact and diplomacy of the MDC caused a few incidents; fortunately none serious.
