Limited Budget Prevents Marriage Series

Professor Alexander Magoun will no longer be giving his semi-annual lectures on marriage. This decision was arrived at by the Technology Club Association on October Monday, November 15. It was the feeling of the board that their budget could not afford to put on Professor Magoun the remuneration which he demands.

For many years Magoun has given a series of four lectures in the fall and the spring under the auspices of the Y.C.A. on various phases of marriage relations. The lectures were always well attended and the students took them in the right spirit.

At times Professor Magoun delivered talks on "Study Helps for Preparing Students which were sponsored by the Student-Faculty Committee. These lectures have also been discontinued.
