The Formal will be held tonight in Morss Hall with music provided by Chappie Arnold and his orchestra.

The affair, with dancing since 8:00 until midnight, is sponsored by the Dormitory Committee and Wurster, B. Wolfe, 96, as chairman of the dance committee directed the affair.

Carl Singing

Entertainment in the Christmas motif is the prize for carol singing and decorations and refreshments in line with the general atmosphere. Tickets at $5.00 a couple are still on sale in Building 10 lobby.

Tonight will also see one of the biggest fraternity formals of the year, the Miami Triad Formal. The party will be sponsored by the three fraternities, Delta Tau, Phi Delta Theta, and Sigma Chi. All of these are held in the University Hall of Miami in Oxford, Ohio, hence the name of the Formal. A Miami Triad is held in almost every school where the three groups are located. Over 300 couples are expected to attend.

"Smithereens" Entertain

Brad Kent and his orchestra will perform at "Smithereens," a fraternal formal, from 9:00 P. M. to 1:00 A. M., and a group of nine Smith brothers will call the "Smithereens" will entertain during the intermission. It is an uncertain what songs the guys have selected for their program.

The formal will be preceded by a fraternity festival, a cocktail party at each of the three fraternities. Members have been hard at work lately in an effort to complete the Christmas decorating of their houses before the banquet.

Technique Auction To Be Held At Noon

Tonight at noon a contest for ten reduced price copies of Technique will be held in Building 14. The contest is open to all members of the Technique options this week.

The contest will begin only be sold this week and next week, and the total price of a year's book will be $10.00, three dollars less than the regular price. The committee representing the contest.

If students are interested in working on the yearbook, openings have been announced in all phases of the organization.

LATE STORY:

Total Loss in Westgate Blaze

Fire gutted the Westgate house of the Midway Industries Wednesday night, destroying virtually all of his family's clothing and newly purchased furnishings. The family, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, a student, heard a cracking noise at about 9:30 p.m., discovered the fire and summoned his baby to safety.

Several of his friends have been left without their personal property which was uninsured because of the high premiums governing in Westgate. Fortunately, the insurance company has arranged to house Miller, his wife, and child in a two room suite in the New Dormitory.
