Hansen Scores Pin; Freshmen Win

Meeting a powerful Harvard team last Saturday afternoon, the Tech wrestlers went down to defeat by a score of 15-7, evening up their season’s record at 1-1. They were bettered by the same score by which Tech defeated them last year, 35-8.

In the 150 lb. class, Tech’s John Hansen pinned his opponent for the only Varsity pin of the afternoon. This was Hansen’s second straight pin of the season and seems to uphold Coach George Meyerson’s convictions as to Hansen’s promise for the future. Heavyweight Chuck Rader defeated his opponent in the unlimited match to notch the only other Tech points.

In the Freshman meet, heavyweight Charles Seymour registered the fastest pin of the afternoon for any Tech wrestler, with 2:47. While Harvard’s Adams scored a fast 1:40.

Glantz Once Again Leads Tech Attack

During the first half the lead switched back and forth, as a tough defensive battle between the two teams seemed to stymie the Engineers’ offensive efforts. Textile led, 24-21, at intermission.

The second half proved to be more of the same, until, with five minutes left to play, the Beavers rolled into high gear and went on to win.
