Three Percent of Students Fail; Figure Shows Slight Decrease As 52 Suffers Heaviest Loss

Senior Mug Lift Will Rockwell With Men and Beer

As a sequel to last year's Junior Mug Lift, the Class of 1950 will pre- sent a Senior Mug Lift on Friday, February 21. The event, to be held in Rockwell Cage, is scheduled to begin around 5:15 P.M. It will continue until midnight. A six-piece orchestra from the Boston Symphony will provide the music. Everyone attending will be permitted to purchase beer, but no other alcoholic beverages will be served.

The executive committee passed a double-admission policy to campus discrimination, which will call for publishing facts on how many different departments in the College have participated in these activities of groups on the At- torney General's List of subversive activities, besides not participating in them.

NSA Passes On Student Rights

Resolution on student rights, Federal scholarships, human relations, and unionization, were passed at the meeting of the national executive committee of the United States National Student Association held recently at Madison, Wis.

On the question of student rights, the committee condemned a loyalty oath being taken by Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps students at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

The committee, which has been participating in the activities of groups on the At- torney General's List of subversive activities, besides not participating in them.

The executive committee passed a double-admission policy to campus discrimination, which will call for publishing facts on how many different departments in the College have participated in these activities of groups on the At- torney General's List of subversive activities, besides not participating in them.

The Dorm Social Committee, with the assistance of the entire student body, will hold the second annual Night of Music on Monday, February 24, at 8:00 P.M. in Litchfield Lounge.

Senior Class Needs Help in Technical Field

Regular Army Commands Granted Graduates of Recognized Institution

In a resolution passed last week, the Student Rights Committee of the United States National Student Association held recently at Madison, Wis., condemned a loyalty oath being taken by Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps students at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

The committee, which has been participating in the activities of groups on the At- torney General's List of subversive activities, besides not participating in them.

Tickets for the Senior Ball will go on sale in Building Ten in little over a week. High prices will be charged for the affair. Girls from most of the Colleges are already being invited. Tickets at $1.20 per person will go on sale in Building Ten in the near future.

The Dorm Social Committee, with the assistance of the entire student body, will hold the second annual Night of Music on Monday, February 24, at 8:00 P.M. in Litchfield Lounge.

Senior Class Needs Help in Technical Field

Regular Army Commands Granted Graduates of Recognized Institution

In a resolution passed last week, the Student Rights Committee of the United States National Student Association held recently at Madison, Wis., condemned a loyalty oath being taken by Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps students at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

The committee, which has been participating in the activities of groups on the At- torney General's List of subversive activities, besides not participating in them.

Tickets for the Senior Ball will go on sale in Building Ten in little over a week. High prices will be charged for the affair. Girls from most of the Colleges are already being invited. Tickets at $1.20 per person will go on sale in Building Ten in the near future.

The Dorm Social Committee, with the assistance of the entire student body, will hold the second annual Night of Music on Monday, February 24, at 8:00 P.M. in Litchfield Lounge.

Senior Class Needs Help in Technical Field

Regular Army Commands Granted Graduates of Recognized Institution

In a resolution passed last week, the Student Rights Committee of the United States National Student Association held recently at Madison, Wis., condemned a loyalty oath being taken by Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps students at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

The committee, which has been participating in the activities of groups on the At- torney General's List of subversive activities, besides not participating in them.

Tickets for the Senior Ball will go on sale in Building Ten in little over a week. High prices will be charged for the affair. Girls from most of the Colleges are already being invited. Tickets at $1.20 per person will go on sale in Building Ten in the near future.

The Dorm Social Committee, with the assistance of the entire student body, will hold the second annual Night of Music on Monday, February 24, at 8:00 P.M. in Litchfield Lounge.

Senior Class Needs Help in Technical Field

Regular Army Commands Granted Graduates of Recognized Institution

In a resolution passed last week, the Student Rights Committee of the United States National Student Association held recently at Madison, Wis., condemned a loyalty oath being taken by Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps students at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

The committee, which has been participating in the activities of groups on the At- torney General's List of subversive activities, besides not participating in them.

Tickets for the Senior Ball will go on sale in Building Ten in little over a week. High prices will be charged for the affair. Girls from most of the Colleges are already being invited. Tickets at $1.20 per person will go on sale in Building Ten in the near future.

The Dorm Social Committee, with the assistance of the entire student body, will hold the second annual Night of Music on Monday, February 24, at 8:00 P.M. in Litchfield Lounge.

Senior Class Needs Help in Technical Field

Regular Army Commands Granted Graduates of Recognized Institution

In a resolution passed last week, the Student Rights Committee of the United States National Student Association held recently at Madison, Wis., condemned a loyalty oath being taken by Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps students at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

The committee, which has been participating in the activities of groups on the At- torney General's List of subversive activities, besides not participating in them.

Tickets for the Senior Ball will go on sale in Building Ten in little over a week. High prices will be charged for the affair. Girls from most of the Colleges are already being invited. Tickets at $1.20 per person will go on sale in Building Ten in the near future.

The Dorm Social Committee, with the assistance of the entire student body, will hold the second annual Night of Music on Monday, February 24, at 8:00 P.M. in Litchfield Lounge.

Senior Class Needs Help in Technical Field

Regular Army Commands Granted Graduates of Recognized Institution

In a resolution passed last week, the Student Rights Committee of the United States National Student Association held recently at Madison, Wis., condemned a loyalty oath being taken by Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps students at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

The committee, which has been participating in the activities of groups on the At- torney General's List of subversive activities, besides not participating in them.

Tickets for the Senior Ball will go on sale in Building Ten in little over a week. High prices will be charged for the affair. Girls from most of the Colleges are already being invited. Tickets at $1.20 per person will go on sale in Building Ten in the near future.

The Dorm Social Committee, with the assistance of the entire student body, will hold the second annual Night of Music on Monday, February 24, at 8:00 P.M. in Litchfield Lounge.

Senior Class Needs Help in Technical Field

Regular Army Commands Granted Graduates of Recognized Institution

In a resolution passed last week, the Student Rights Committee of the United States National Student Association held recently at Madison, Wis., condemned a loyalty oath being taken by Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps students at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

The committee, which has been participating in the activities of groups on the At- torney General's List of subversive activities, besides not participating in them.

Tickets for the Senior Ball will go on sale in Building Ten in little over a week. High prices will be charged for the affair. Girls from most of the Colleges are already being invited. Tickets at $1.20 per person will go on sale in Building Ten in the near future.

The Dorm Social Committee, with the assistance of the entire student body, will hold the second annual Night of Music on Monday, February 24, at 8:00 P.M. in Litchfield Lounge.

Senior Class Needs Help in Technical Field

Regular Army Commands Granted Graduates of Recognized Institution

In a resolution passed last week, the Student Rights Committee of the United States National Student Association held recently at Madison, Wis., condemned a loyalty oath being taken by Naval Reserve Officer Training Corps students at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

The committee, which has been participating in the activities of groups on the At- torney General's List of subversive activities, besides not participating in them.