Four new members of the Electricity and Magnetism Laboratory were announced as follows: Edward Becht, Barry Norris, and Kennology. In addition, the Department of E.lectrical Engineering will conduct an open student-faculty meeting at 11 a.m. on Monday, April 25, in the Electrical Engineering Laboratory, Room 7-111.

The Department of Electronics and Computer Science is planning a symposium on
"Recent Advances in Computer Science" to be held in the Lawrence A. M. Knight Laboratory, Room 7-111, on Tuesday, April 26.

In addition, the Department of Mathematics will conduct a symposium on "Recent Advances in Mathematics" to be held in the Mathematics Library, Room 7-111, on Wednesday, April 27.

The Department of Physics
is planning a symposium on
"Recent Advances in Physics" to be held in the Physics Laboratory, Room 7-111, on Thursday, April 28.

The Department of Chemistry will conduct a
symposium on "Recent Advances in Chemistry" to be held in the Chemistry Laboratory, Room 7-111, on Friday, April 29.

The Department of Civil Engineering will conduct a
symposium on "Recent Advances in Civil Engineering" to be held in the Civil Engineering Laboratory, Room 7-111, on Saturday, April 30.

The Department of Economics will conduct a
symposium on "Recent Advances in Economics" to be held in the Economics Library, Room 7-111, on Sunday, May 1.

The Department of Geography will conduct a
symposium on "Recent Advances in Geography" to be held in the Geography Laboratory, Room 7-111, on Monday, May 2.

The Department of History will conduct a
symposium on "Recent Advances in History" to be held in the History Library, Room 7-111, on Tuesday, May 3.

The Department of Political Science will conduct a
symposium on "Recent Advances in Political Science" to be held in the Political Science Library, Room 7-111, on Wednesday, May 4.

The Department of Psychology will conduct a
symposium on "Recent Advances in Psychology" to be held in the Psychology Laboratory, Room 7-111, on Thursday, May 5.

The Department of Sociology will conduct a
symposium on "Recent Advances in Sociology" to be held in the Sociology Library, Room 7-111, on Friday, May 6.