Race Bias Imperils U.S. Warns Walter F. White

Russia's greatest asset in the cold war, according to Walter F. White, Executive Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, is the doubt by the colored world that the Western powers are willing to eliminate racial discrimination and uphold their statements that the last two world wars have been fought to keep the world free.

WALTER F. WHITE

Frosh Add New Dance Theme To Tech Social Life

Hal Snow and his orchestra and a cabaret theme will be featured this Friday night as the Class of 1953 presents the "Carnival Colas," the first social enterprise here at the Institute.

Empty liquor bottles, candy stuck in the necks will provide unique table decorations. A musical prelude for old-time bar will continue the theme of the dance. In sharp contrast will be a water fountain with varying colored lights surrounded by a bed of carnations.

Open to All

Intermission entertainment, including classical, country, and hillbilly music, will be provided entirely by members of the class of '53. Peter R. Stone and Thomas L. Kelly will be featured violinists for the intermission, which will be broadcast over station WITF.

"We do not want to infer from the fact that this dance is presented by the class of '53, stated Colonel D. Gardiner, Social Chairman, "that it is for classmen only; all members of the Institute family are invited."

Tickets are now on sale at the lobby of Building 19 for the price of 30 cents per couple.

Dorm Men Poll Shows Raise In Rent Preferred To Laundry Service Cut

In accordance with the wishes of 87 per cent of the dormitory residents who cast ballots, the Advisory Committee on Housing has unanimously voted to continue the present practice of supplying blankets, soap, and regularly laundered sheets, pillows, and towels in the dormitories. The attempt to reduced service, a $10.00 per room rental increase for all residents, the dormitory system was accordingly abandoned.

Faced with a $70,000 deficit in the operation of the dormitories, the Committee, ten days ago decided that if the laundry and blanket service was preferable to the other plan at this time, Resident response to the decision was generally unfavorable and it was thus determined to run the referendum.

Dorm Committee Concerns

Results of the poll and the revised plan were presented to the undergraduate Dormitory Committee at a special meeting last Wednesday and that body unanimously approved the recommendations. Dean Everett M. Baker also disclosed at the meeting that the new policy regarding establishment of a laundry service for freshman dormitory rooms with consequence that floor class residents would remain unaffected.

A petition bearing 179 signatures had been presented to Dean Baker protesting the existing policy. Most of the signatures, it was noted, were residents of the units being served. In the summer of 1954, Dean Baker reiterated his contention that this year with the highest percentage of ninety-year-old residents in the most auspicious year to inaugurate any plan.

$40,000 Deficit Remains

On the laundry referendum, 972 ballots were cast with 846 preferring continuation of the laundry service at a $5.00 increase in rental. 150 calling for no increase in rental, and 18 opposing no preference or suggesting other alternative courses of action. The netting of the increase will pay for the room for the Class of '53 and leaving a $40,000 deficit for other.

Cornish And Lessor Victorious In National Bridge Tournament

C. Martin Cornish '36 and Richard T. Lesser '50, representing the Institute in the National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament, held at the Blackstone Hotel in Chicago last weekend. trailing by 16 points after the first session of play, the 7-0 pair gained ground fast and finished with a total score of 122, defeating the second-place pair from the University of Illinois.

Regional eliminations for the tournament were held in February, with teams from such large sections of the country earning all-star teams for the final rounds. In the regional eliminations, Down East winner, trailing nationally, and first in New England.

A large silver trophy will be presented to the Institute as the winners. Cornish and Lesser will each receive individual trophies.