NOTICES

ORGANIZATION CONCERT
The M.I.T. Symphony Orchestra is giving its final concert of the season tonight in Morse Hall. Professor Leo E. Giggenbach will conduct the orchestra in the following works: Haydn's Symphony No. 101 ("The Clock"); Concerto for Clarinet and Orchestra of Weber with Hot Levine as soloist; Copland's Outdoor Overture and Quiet City; "Froiss" by Hindemith.

SPRING REPORTS
Reports for the Spring Term 1950 will be mailed on Thursday, June 8, to the addresses indicated below:

Transfer students, Term Address
All others, Home Address

Students who wish to have their reports sent elsewhere must call at the Registrar's Office, Room 7-142, not later than Friday, May 26. Duplicate reports for students who are under age will be sent to the parents.

Reports are not sent to students who are candidates for a degree in June, 1950.

FOR SALE: Outboard Motor ... $35
T. E. Pawel UN 4-3870

GANTEAUME & McMULLEN
ENGINEERS and ARCHITECTS

99 Chauncy Street
Boston, Mass.

HA 6-8970

DINE with US TODAY
ALL ROOMS OPEN TO VISITORS TO M.I.T.
11:00 A.M. TO 7:00 P.M.

MORRIS HALL
CAFETERIA SERVICE 11:00 A.M.-7:00 P.M.

PRITCHETT LOUNGE
11:00 A.M.-12 MIDDAY

TECHNOLOGY DINING HALLS
Walker Memorial Building