WITH A YEAR OF THE WORLD’S FINEST AVIATION TRAINING IN THE U. S. AIR FORCE

Yes, sir—It takes a full year’s training as an Aviation Cadet to earn your commission as an officer and pilot in the U. S. Air Force. But that commission is worth its weight in gold.

And when you strut those wings and bars for the first time you can be sure that you’ve had the finest instructors and training equipment that any flying man ever had . . . that you are ready and able to carry out any mission assigned.

For the Air Force believes being a good pilot is just one of the qualities necessary . . . you must make a good officer as well . . . capable of commanding the respect of superiors and subordinates alike . . . capable of assuming and discharging the responsibilities of your office . . . capable of being an officer of the U. S. Air Force.

In jet-pilot language that means . . . GET GOING AND GET GOING FAST! Your take-off point is the Aviation Cadet Selection Team which will soon visit your own college campus. See if you can qualify. If you can . . . you’re on the way up to the top. First stop . . . aviation cadet training school. First pay . . . $105 a month for one year with all clothing, food, medical and dental care provided free. First commission . . . 2nd Lt. in the U. S. Air Force Reserve. Beginning salary close to $5,000 a year. You’ve got a top job and with your training and experience you’ll stay on top.

Get on Top . . . Stay on Top . . . with the U. S. Air Force.
