Calendar of Events

Wednesday, November 8
Varsity Soccer Team. Match with Brown University at Providence, Rhode Island, 5:00 p.m.

Aeronautics Research Laboratory, Department: Colloquium: "Applications of correlation analysis." Dr. T. V. Lee. Room 6-118, 4:30 p.m. Tea will be served in Room 6-23 at 5:00 p.m.

Catholic Club, "Easter Morning with Paul Blanshard." Reverend Thomas Tierney, Chaplains of Boston University, Room 1-190, 5:00 p.m. Every Tuesday.

Enter-Varsity Christian Fellowship. Bible Study, "The Resurrection - the reality of Christ." Mr. Philip Janowicz, Room 6-347, 7:00 p.m.

Mathematics Society. Lecture. "Symmetric Transformations of Simple Polyhedrons." Room 6-278, 4:30 p.m.

M.I.T. Marketing Club. Marketing "Problems of Supermarkets." Mr. Richard Speere, President, American Marketing Association, New England Chapter. Mount Room, 6-228, 7:00 p.m.

Thursday, November 9
Freshman Soccer Team. Match with Brown University at Providence, Rhode Island, 5:00 p.m.

Aeronautics Research Laboratory, Department: Colloquium: "Application of Non-Uniform Mixture." Mr. John DeGregorio. Room 2-310, 4:00 p.m.

Electric Balloons: Meeting. "Pow'r in Transit." Mr. Robert H. Wescott, Metropolitan Transit Authority. Room 5-110, 3:00 p.m.

Silver Club Dinner Meeting. Silver Room, Walker Memorial, 6:00 p.m.

Friday, November 10
Biology Department. Applied Biophysics Seminar: "Air Flow Measurements in Human Respiration." Dr. J. Mead. Room 3-202, 5:00 p.m.

Mechanical Engineering Department. Seminar: "An Analysis of a Gimbal Thrust Bearing." Mr. Gerhard Bache. Room 6-27, 4:00 p.m. (revised.)

Aeronautics Research Laboratory, Department: Colloquium: "Air Flow Measurement in Coupled Motion." Mr. Robert B. Bacastaw. Room 6-278, 4:30 p.m.

Mechanical Science Department: Seminar. "Aseptic-Faculty Dinner. Room 6-317, 5:00 p.m. Professor John A. Boreus will speak on undersea navigation.

Lecture Series Committee. "Imaginary Invalid." Dr. Heinz Lettau. Room 12-182, 4:00 p.m. Every Tuesday.

Saturday, November 11
Freshman Soccer Team. Match with Brandeis University. Briggs Field, 1:00 p.m.

Varsity Soccer Team. Match with Woonsocket Polytechnic Institute at Worcester, 2:00 p.m.

Physics Department. Meeting. Members for Members and Candidates. Donations Library of Building 24, 6:15 p.m.

Monday, November 13
C Bear Country, New England School of Agriculture at Franklin Park, 2:00 p.m.

Aeronautics Research Laboratory, Department: Seminar: "Problems in Aerodynamics and Testing." Dr. H. Gayford Stever. Room 31-105, 4:00 p.m. Coffee will be served in the Cutler Room from 3:15 to 4:00 p.m. Open to Graduates and Staff.

Aeronautics Research Laboratory, Department: Seminar: "West Bottoms of the Earth's Surface." Dr. Heber Sette. Room 12-323, 4:00 p.m.

Lecture Series Committee. "Renaissance Relations in Industry." Mr. Joseph Tierney, Chaplain of Boston University. Room 1-190, 5:00 p.m. Every Tuesday.

Tuesday, November 7, 1950

The Imaginary Invalid
A Fantasia of a Screen Play by THOMAS BAXTER, Instructor in the Dramatic Stage. Presented by the Dramatic Stage and the Department of Speech. Thursday, November 10, 8:00 p.m. In the Auditorium of the Administration Building. Admission, 50 cents; students, 25 cents. Box office open Monday to Thursday, 8:00 to 8:30 p.m., and Friday, 8:00 to 9:00 a.m. Admission is limited to 500.

The Imaginary Invalid, a farcical comedy, is one of the few works written by the 18th century master, Richard Brinsley Sheridan. Sheridan, as popular as Shakespeare in his time, was given credit for a large part of the English stage at the beginning of the 19th century. In 1777, the same year that this play was written, a30 percent of the total plays performed were Sheridan's productions. His plays were often produced in different versions in many parts of the world. Sheridan himself rejected a version of the play that he thought too "tragic," and Thomas Baxter has employed this version as the basis for the M.I.T. production of The Imaginary Invalid.

The Cast
Imaginary Invalid, 18th Century: Mr. Richard Castell, Professor of English, and Mr. Charles W. Budge, Instructor in Speech. Imaginary Invalid, 19th Century: Mr. John Wraight, Instructor in Speech. Imaginary Invalid, 20th Century: Mr. Leonard C. Morgan, Instructor in Speech.

The Imaginary Invalid is a play that can be enjoyed by people of all ages. It is a story of the fortunes of a young man who is looking for a wife. He meets with many difficulties, but eventually finds a suitable bride. The play is full of humor and satire, and is a good example of the kind of comedy that was popular in the 18th century.

The Imaginary Invalid will be performed on Thursday, November 10, at 8:00 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Administration Building. Admission is limited to 500, and tickets are available at the front desk of the Administration Building. The play will be repeated on Friday, November 11, at 8:00 p.m. in the same location.

The Imaginary Invalid is a play that can be enjoyed by people of all ages. It is a story of the fortunes of a young man who is looking for a wife. He meets with many difficulties, but eventually finds a suitable bride. The play is full of humor and satire, and is a good example of the kind of comedy that was popular in the 18th century.

The Imaginary Invalid will be performed on Thursday, November 10, at 8:00 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Administration Building. Admission is limited to 500, and tickets are available at the front desk of the Administration Building. The play will be repeated on Friday, November 11, at 8:00 p.m. in the same location.

The Imaginary Invalid is a play that can be enjoyed by people of all ages. It is a story of the fortunes of a young man who is looking for a wife. He meets with many difficulties, but eventually finds a suitable bride. The play is full of humor and satire, and is a good example of the kind of comedy that was popular in the 18th century.

The Imaginary Invalid will be performed on Thursday, November 10, at 8:00 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Administration Building. Admission is limited to 500, and tickets are available at the front desk of the Administration Building. The play will be repeated on Friday, November 11, at 8:00 p.m. in the same location.

The Imaginary Invalid is a play that can be enjoyed by people of all ages. It is a story of the fortunes of a young man who is looking for a wife. He meets with many difficulties, but eventually finds a suitable bride. The play is full of humor and satire, and is a good example of the kind of comedy that was popular in the 18th century.

The Imaginary Invalid will be performed on Thursday, November 10, at 8:00 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Administration Building. Admission is limited to 500, and tickets are available at the front desk of the Administration Building. The play will be repeated on Friday, November 11, at 8:00 p.m. in the same location.

The Imaginary Invalid is a play that can be enjoyed by people of all ages. It is a story of the fortunes of a young man who is looking for a wife. He meets with many difficulties, but eventually finds a suitable bride. The play is full of humor and satire, and is a good example of the kind of comedy that was popular in the 18th century.