EIGHT OR TEN? See PAGE 3

Thursday, November 27th, in the "Miller Room"

The Junior Prom of the Class of 1952 opens tonight to a refresh crowd with the traditional first night formal dance at the Copley Plaza hotel. Named Stars and Bars, the Junior Prom will be sponsored by the Student-Faculty Forum, with the faculty sponsors being Professor Thomas R. Miller, moderator, and Professor Edward R. Gilman.

Tucker To Lecture
On Music Next Mon.

Contemporary American music will come under the scrutiny of the Institute's Prof. Tucker next Monday, November 27, in room 2140 at 3:00 p.m. A lecture on music at Technology, Tucker will approach "Music and America's Future." If you are interested, you are welcome to attend.

To Speak World

The philosophy of its author Pierre Van Paasen, who is speaking here today, is the subject "There is Still Time." Van Paasen's speech is the second lecture in the Lecture Series Committee Subscription Series.

The new rules provide that no one will be allowed to use the telephones or misuse of any kind shall be thrown from the dormitory. Violation of the rule will result in disciplinary action by the Dormitory Judicial Committee.

Fifty Peter Pauper Books are being sold for seventy-five cents for reserved seats, 50 cents for general admission and five cents for reserved seats.

The fifty Peter Pauper Books are being sold for seventy-five cents for reserved seats, 50 cents for general admission and five cents for reserved seats.

The fifty Peter Pauper Books are being sold for seventy-five cents for reserved seats, 50 cents for general admission and five cents for reserved seats.

Library Friends Run Prize Essay Contest Open To All Students

The Friends of the Institute Library have organized a prize essay contest, open to all students at the Institute, in conjunction with an exhibition that has been given in the Institute by the Peter Pauper Press, of New York.

The fifty Peter Pauper Books are being sold for seventy-five cents for reserved seats, 50 cents for general admission and five cents for reserved seats.

Prize essays are to be submitted to the Library by December 15. An exhibition of Peter Pauper Press work will be on display in the Library during the contest. The fifty Peter Pauper Books are being sold for seventy-five cents for reserved seats, 50 cents for general admission and five cents for reserved seats.

The fifty Peter Pauper Books are being sold for seventy-five cents for reserved seats, 50 cents for general admission and five cents for reserved seats.

The fifty Peter Pauper Books are being sold for seventy-five cents for reserved seats, 50 cents for general admission and five cents for reserved seats.