Baker Served
Fifteen Years
As A Minister

Evelyn Moore Baker was born in 1901, and received her undergraduate work at Harvard Divinity School, where she graduated in 1929. During her last four years at Har vard, she served as assistant minister under Francis E. Peabody.

During his last four years at Har vard, he served as assistant minister under Francis E. Peabody.

Dean Baker's major vocation was ad ministration. It was characteristic of him that the ministries above listed, he served as President of the Unitarian Union from 1944 to 1949; of the Westminster Congregational Society at Phillips Exeter Academy.

His first congregation as a full minister was that of the Mt. Vernon Church in Boston, during the years 1929 to 1937. In the latter year he was appointed executive vice president of the American Unitarian Association in Providence, R. I., a position he continued throughout his lifetime. In 1948 he came to M. T. as Dean of Students.

In 1953 Dean Baker married Miss Helen Macdonald. Of two sons, David Everett was a member of the Class of 1948 at M. T., and Mary Hutton Baker of Newtonville, in 1901, the son of George D. and Mary Hutton Baker of Newtonville,
in 1901, the son of George D. and worked three years at the Mt. Vernon Church in Boston, during the years 1929 to 1937.

Dean Baker demon strated a profound interest in the out-door life of boys and girls. His interest in the boys' camps con tinued throughout his lifetime. In 1948 he came to M. T. as Dean of Students.

Dean Baker was always prompted to promote their welfare or to be of help to them. AB student with a degree from Dartmouth in 1949.

Dean Baker never failed to promote their welfare or to be of help to them. AB student with a degree from Dartmouth in 1949.

Dean Baker never failed to
promote their welfare or to be of
help to them. AB student with a degree from Dartmouth in 1949.

Dean Baker never failed to
promote their welfare or to be of
help to them. AB student with a degree from Dartmouth in 1949.