"No Such Game As ‘Karoso’"

T.E.N., Many Students ‘Taken’

By EDWARD F. LEONARD

Dean Karl Compton of the Tech Engineering News, and Professor of Mechanical Engineering Joseph Keenan, both well-known figures in the world of engineering, have written a letter to the Trustees of the University asking for the removal of the word “Karoso” from the name of the game played by the Tech Engineering News.

The letter states that “Karoso” is a game that has been popular for many years on the campus, and that it has been the subject of much controversy. The letter goes on to explain that “Karoso” is a game that involves a great deal of strategy and skill, and that it is a game that is enjoyed by many students.

The letter concludes by asking that the name of the game be changed to something that is more appropriate and that is more in keeping with the traditions of the University. The letter states that “Karoso” is a game that is not in keeping with the traditions of the University, and that it is a game that is not in keeping with the traditions of the University.

Adantic Union Problem To Be Osborne's Topic

On Thursday, February 18th, the Atlantic Union Committee will bring the Honorable Lyman Goff to the Institute to speak on the subject, “Atlantic Union - To Avoid Prohibition in room 1-399 at 8:00 p.m."

The Atlantic Union has been an active and influential organization throughout the country including Martin Compston and Professor of Mechanical Engineering Joseph Keenan, both well-known figures in the world of engineering. The Atlantic Union is a group that is dedicated to promoting the interests of the Atlantic Union and to protecting the rights of the people of the United States.

The letter goes on to explain that “Karoso” is a game that is enjoyed by many students, and that it is a game that is enjoyed by many students. The letter concludes by asking that the name of the game be changed to something that is more appropriate and that is more in keeping with the traditions of the University.

The letter states that “Karoso” is a game that has been popular for many years on the campus, and that it has been the subject of much controversy. The letter goes on to explain that “Karoso” is a game that involves a great deal of strategy and skill, and that it is a game that is enjoyed by many students.

The letter concludes by asking that the name of the game be changed to something that is more appropriate and that is more in keeping with the traditions of the University. The letter states that “Karoso” is a game that is not in keeping with the traditions of the University, and that it is a game that is not in keeping with the traditions of the University.

Scabbard & Blade Society Presents Annual Formal

The evening of Friday, March 2, the Scabbard & Blade Society will be holding its annual formal in the Harvard Union. The formal will be held at 8:00 p.m., and the admission fee will be $1.50.

The formal will feature a full bill of entertainment, including a medley of “Loverman” and “Just Like a Woman” by the South Rampart Street Dixie Group. The Beacon Street Dixie Group will play the South Rampart Street Dixie, and the Dinner Music Society will play a medley of “Loverman” and “Just Like a Woman” by the South Rampart Street Dixie Group.

The formal will also feature a dance, and the dance will be open to all members of the Scabbard & Blade Society. The dance will be held at 9:00 p.m., and the admission fee will be $1.50.

The formal will conclude with the installation of new officers and the presentation of awards. The installation of new officers will be held at 10:00 p.m., and the admission fee will be $1.50.

The formal will be held in the Harvard Union, and the admission fee will be $1.50.