SPRING VACATION GIVES CREW CHANCE TO IRON OUT FAULTS

BY MARK KAPLAN

The spring vacation saw the Tech oarsmen have a good workout as they practiced in the morning and afternoon on the Charles.

They wound up the vacation practice with a race between all boats and finished as follows: The heavy varsity took the lead by 3 1/2 lengths behind them the heavy Frosh passed the finish line.

The heavy JV came in last about a length behind the light varsity. The heavy varsity finished the course in 9:40, as compared with last year's time trial of 9:25.

This showing is not as satisfactory as Coach Mamme wanted it to be. However the heavy Frosh may be recommended on their performance.

The first race isn't very far off and now that we've been out getting back to the books Harvard has taken action and will be practicing full-time. This means a lot of work and effort on the part of our crew to keep in shape.

VARSITY SAILING

The listing of the varsity boat, as was noted last Saturday, the last day of practice, is:

Heavy varsity
Frank E. Jacoby
Paul Smith
Dave Weiss
G. Howes
John H. Compton

Heavy Frosh
William W. Dunn
John F. Compton
L. Jacoby
Whitman A. Richards
Marilyn Fraser
Anthony R. Gianforio

Heavy JV
George Underwood

The official schedule is as follows:

April 16-17th, Harvard, Boston U., C.C.C., Brandeis, Tech-Varies
April 18th, Tech-Frosh, Tech-J.V., U.S. Navy
April 21st, NI.I.T., All Lights
May 2nd, Harvard, Dartmouth, M.I.T., All Lights
May 27th, I.U.I., All Lights

Full-time. This means a lot of work and effort on the part of our crew to keep in shape.
