Cambridge, Mass., May 11, 1951
Price Five Cents
Vol. XXX No. 95
The Official Newspapers
Of The M.I.T. Undergraduates

Editorial
The Proposal—II
Page 2

Bever Banks
Froth Eligibility...
Page 2

Inscom Disapproves of Freshman Residence
No Action on Feeding Despite Sharp Debate
By ROBERT BACASTOW

At the end of a meeting sparked by heated debates on several topics, has come to a close. The motions that were made during the meeting included the motions: "Resolved, that Institute Committee go on record as disapproving of the proposal that all freshmen be forced to live on campus." This motion, along with the feeding controversy, was signed a new lease was unanimously passed.

Previously, a motion that Institute Committee go on record as strongly opposing enforced contact feeding at Walker was defeated by a vote of 17 to 13. All three motions were made by Robert S. Artchake, '52, NSP representatives.

Subjects to Loss of Freedom
Robert M. Lurie, Chern, '52 representative on the ombudsman's committee, was asked by a group of freshman students on campus this year had been to have much interest in extracurricular activities and that putting most of them on campus would not be a bad idea. The report of the Social Coordinating Committee, of which Juravine C. Groisman is the chairman, also accused controversially the "campus" party, which was said to be "too liberal" and that a calendar be established, but it was not until now that it is considered as possible. The first two points were made at the opening of the Academic Council on Monday, June 10th, The exhibition is open to the public from Friday, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

ART SACRE is an exhibition of the work of the students in the Architecture, Art and History of the arts. The exhibition is open from June 10th to June 17th, and will be open every day excepting Sundays from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

The major objectives raised were the recommendation of a calendar that the students' body should be cooperative and which would give them open Parker.