Freshmen Supplement

Most Living Groups Have Some Vacancies for Freshmen

At Columbus, the largest steak or roast beef that you've seen for the money. Other dinner comes to less than $2.00, whereas the best lunch at the restaurant a bit cheaper. In our section. Excellent Broadway-Washington St. intersection. Excellent for enterainment and dancing. The serviced section has 200 cancellations should be forthcoming. The serviced section has 200 cancellations, but no single rooms available. Any cancellations on single rooms will probably be taken up by the present waiting list. Baker House is filled to capacity with very few cancellations expected. The Graded House is also filled, and has opened a special annex at 415 St. Residents in this annex move back to the Graded House as soon as vacancies occur there.

Although Rush Week has ended, there are still some vacancies in freshmen. Many are taking more formal classes now that they have gotten settled. At Bartlett House, the cooperative section is filled with 240 reservations, but some cancellations should be forthcoming.

Within walking distance of many of the campus dormitories are a number of fine restaurants. A view of last year's Freshmen Acquaintance Dance. This year's P.A.D. is scheduled for October 11.

With myriads of posters beaming down on his lifetime's research, the freshman of 1951 must be surprised at the intensity of the social scene so early in the season. While all pre-instruction literary meetings are busy recruiting freshmen, the crowding in on them what they are trying to do little to include the rich, varied, and mellow pre-programs to which these advertisements preview.

A view of last year's Freshmen Acquaintance Dance.

February 19-20 - Dormitory Acquaintance Dance - Catholoc Club Acquaintance Dance

March 23-24 - Class of '53 Function

March 30 - Tech-A-Poppin

April 14-15 - Junior Prom - Class of 1953

April 20-21 - Tech Show - Concert

April 27-28 - Musical Clubs Orchestra Concert

May 1-2 - Interfraternity Council, Dormitory Week-end

May 6-7 - Junior Muglift - Musical Clubs Orchestra Concert

May 19-20 - Tech Night at the Pops

This dorm can be reached by walking across Harvard Bridge and then right on Mass. Ave. First term freshmen have to be in at 9:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and at 12:00 on Saturdays. The deadline is 12:00 p.m., on Sunday through Wednesday, and at 12:00 on Saturdays. Freshmen can stay until 1:00 a.m., and at 1:00 a.m. freshmen can be back. If freshmen are headed home, they must be back by 11:00 p.m. as they want provided they are on their best behavior.

Emerson:-Best way to get to the dorms is by the 3 Winter Night at the Pops