... The Class of 1955 Takes A Look Around

The Freshmen took Field Day last year and it’s a fact that no class that won it in the freshman year has ever lost in its sophomore year. It’s up to you, the class of ’54, to try and break this tradition. However the Sophomores have their own plans.

It is going to be rough going for ’56 with all the hazing, the wearing of ties, and the learning of songs. But out of all of this foraging good will come. When it’s all over, no matter who the winner, both sides will profit by the coordination and practice of working together they will have received.

Just to show that the Sophomores are real sports they want to pass on this remark: “May the best team win.”

For the benefit of the Freshmen and Sophomores who plan to participate in the events on that great day, listed below are the sports, their coaches, and practice times and places:

Freshmen:
- Football: Bill Feeley - Head Coach
- Track: John McPherson - Head Coach
- Crew: Chuck Jackman and John Andersson - Co-Head Coaches

Sophomores:
- Football: Harland St. John - Head Coach
- Track: Oscar Ireland - Head Coach
- Crew: Jim Waters - Head Coach
- Tug-of-War: John Murray - Head Coach

The exception of athletes, this is the first batch of the freshmen courses. Good class notes and an occasional glance through the R.O.T.C. manual provides the necessary preparation for most courses.

Weekly drills are usually mastered by the end of the first term, but are no need for worry. Instructors are generally friendly, despite some outward appearances. Questions are usually answered, although the army issues pamphlets telling everything it knows.
