RICHARDS

Tech Pharmacy
86 MASS. AVENUE

Food and Entertainments vice for about $3.00. Plenty of an fascinating atmosphere with stalls and restar bar sitting where they were in 1893. Three restaurants at 41 Union, 168 Stuart, and 124 Chal
Street.

Honey Bee—The nearest decent restaurant to Tech. Located on Mass. Ave., in Central Square, Cambridge. Prices hover around $1.50, and immediately is the gentleman who fills his conversation with class room matters such as Chemistry, Physics, Chemistry, etc. Many of the girls probably know as much about these subjects as any freshman from MLT, and since there are a good many men from the Institute making the rounds, it's hard to loge the girls a chance of subject.

So particularly odious is the date who tries to endanger his ladies with his own by complaining of the tiring hours or the speeches, beforehand - filled nights. The girls have heard these stories a hundred times over. In short, success with the fair sex comes largely through a pers onality, industry and institution.

and although you don't find too much variety from week to week, the food is good and worth the price.

Entertainment and/or Dancing Ellie and Drama Room—Located in the Hotel Vendome, near Copley Square. There's a minuet after 9:00 p.m., but its quickly used up in a drink of two. Band is small and so is the dance floor. Usually a college crowd.

Tennis Room, Hotel Statler—An excellent band and intriguing atmosphere make this worth the $1.00 cover charge. You can make an evening of it for less than $3.00 if you've decided you don't eat anything.

Late Quarter—Plunkett night clubs in Boston and one of the few with a floor show. At 48 Winches-ton St., bring your book account with you because the minimum is $4.00 per person.

The Elot Lounge—On Mass. Ave.
Just the other side of Comm-wealth, concentrations of smart lights and music, comfortable seats, good drinks, and faulty low prices.
Pre-

2:00 p.m., all drinks are $.39.
The Standards—a huss, rather antique pipe and dance place on the Worcester Turnpike about 17 miles from Boston. A full meal will cost plenty, but you can get by for less by sitting in the Lounge.
