Richards Cup To Be Given Winner Of Inter Class Crew

By BOY KAPLOW

The annual interclass crew race will be revived next month after a lapse of eleven years. On Saturday, November 13, crewmen representing the senior, junior, sophomore, and freshmen classes will compete in a mile race on the Charles for the George Henry Richards Interclass Rowing Challenge Cup.

Attention—Freshmen and Sophomores!!

The sports staff of WMIT will present a special program on Wednesday night, the 24th, in reference to Field day events. At 8:30 P.M. all the coaches, the manager of Field Day, a member of the administration, and an alumnus will be interviewed. At the end of the hour the radio audience will know the history of Field Day, some reminiscences of the old days, and the general spirit in which it takes place.

This little gee-gee was all at sea. It was enough to upset his equine-inity. Had he been reading about those rival virus cigarette tests — the quick puff, the fast puff — "Harden the scientific approach," he said in his confusion. But then he realized that one test is an equine of a different pigmentation — a thorough, conclusive test of cigarette mildness.

It's the sensible test ... the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks: you to try Camel as your steady smoke — a day after day basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camel for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Thrust, T for Tost), you'll see why ... After all the Mildness Tests, Camel leads all other brands by millions.
