Special Committee Set Up To Study Parking Problem

In response to many complaints, especially by dormitory residents, about over-patronage of the cars parked in the basement of the Student Union, the Committee on Student Government has established a committee, to be composed of representatives from the dormitories, faculty, and administration, to study the problem.

Malcolm Maltuss, 32, president of the Dormitory Committee, has been asked to appoint one representative from each university building to the committee. The purpose of the committee is to determine possible policy changes that would alleviate the problem somewhat, while at the same time not preventing parking altogether.

Dean Bowditch Praises Sports Program Here

Dean of Students E. Franklin Bowditch spoke to two separate groups last week on the relation of athletics to the over-all activity program at M.I.T. Bowditch, a former Harvard track man, pointed out to the members of the Freshman class the problems involved in athletics today. According to Dean Bowditch, the problems are: the growth of the number of people requesting former Harvard track man, pointed out to the members of the Freshman class Wednesday afternoon that participation in athletics builds the person physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually, fulfilling the objectives of any complete educational system. Particularly important, he continued, are the spiritual values that may be obtained through athletic competition.

Intramural Football Ends In Three-Way Deadlock

Playoffs Leave Baker, S.A.E., Theta Chi Tied

Last Saturday afternoon S.A.E. won the football game 13-7 against Baker House. From Baker House 10-6, as the first touchdown scored on the last play of the game, which was a long pass from Bill Moreau to Ed Porter in the third quarter. The winners had received two points for a safety as the result of a bad pass from center earlier in the game. The only scoring in the last half came when Gino Selkasmandre was trapped behind the goal line. S.A.E. played an inspired ball game, and there seemed to be little doubt about the outcome after the first half. Baker House comforted without Don Twinnell and George Institute members were in the prevailing week.

Theta Chi defeated Theta Delta Chi 10-0 by a score of 13-5 as Big Three passed for two touchdowns, one to Paul Good who is brother to Pete Conlin. The Theta Delta, Theta Xi, and Phi Beta Bob Barlow, Ken Childs, and Mike Nance, made their only score on an intercepted pass early in the game.
