Noted Writer, J.T. Farrell, To Present LSC Lecture

On Wednesday evening, February 20, at 8:00 p.m., the Lecture and Special Features Committee of the融媒体 department will feature J.T. Farrell, noted Irish-American novelist, as its guest speaker. Mr. Farrell will speak on "Cultural Freedom In Our Time." The presentation is open to the public and no admission will be charged.

Mr. Farrell is the author of the most remarkable novels of our times: The Neighborhood, The Hill, The Luck of the Irish, and most recently, The Man Who Was Neither. His works are known for their boldness and profundity, and for their unflinching honesty in portraying the true nature of man and society.

The Tech Smoker Today; Numerous Positions Open

A large number of positions are currently open on the many operating staffs of THE TECH. The new managing board is interested in making several major improvements in Student-Faculty Committee which have been requested by a serious lack of personnel. All interested in working for the Student-Faculty Committee are requested to meet at 10:250 Huntington Hall, February 22, 1952, in order to be considered for the open positions.

Debate Team Loses

In a debate held last Saturday, the Debating Team was defeated by Harvard University. The topics of discussion were "Should the Federal Government Should Adopt A Permanent Program of U.S. Government Controls on the War Economy," and "Is the Success of the U.S. Economic Program for the War Economy a Success?"

The following were promoted from 1st Lieutenant to Captain: Ann Harrison, completed the woman's role with Rebecca Wysong and Ann Fenn students. The three being the first smoker at 5 P.M. today in Facility Lounge.

NSA Will Hold Charity Carnival For Fund Drive

At the NSA smoker this evening, February 20, 1952, there will be a Charity Carnival to take place of the annual World Student Service Fund drive.

The funds for WSSF come only from the voluntary contributions from the entire world through the free sector of the world's population. The funds will help build and rebuild universities in Korea, Europe, and just recently Southeast Asia to which many Americans are rapidly shifting as communism there takes on more and more momentum.

The aid is practical. The univer- sist students receive student necessity books, living quarters, hospital care, inheritance, admission, etc. The sole criteria for assistance is need.

"Carneol to be Held"

This year instead of the usual individual solicitation, the NSA felt that a carnival appealing to every group of the Tech student body might be more effective, and more fun.

"Carnival to be Held"

The Foreign Student Summer Project, the International Association for the Exchange of Students with Technical Experience, the Displaced Person's Project, and The Work Study, Travel Abroad Program are some of the other NSA activities which will be discussed at the smoker at 5 P.M today in Facility Lounge.

M. S. Promotions Announced Today

The Military Science department announced the following appointments to effective within the regiment at the Institute.

"Carnival to be Held"

Finally John Small, Jr., was appointed to the post of Cadet Advisor.

Promotions

The Military Science department announced the following appointments to effective within the regiment at the Institute.

Finaly John Small, Jr., was appointed to the post of Cadet Advisor.

WAC to Offer Reserve Positions Deadline April 1

Qualified women college graduates are offered reserve commissions in the Women's Army Corps for the third consecutive year. The Military Science depart- ment has announced. A candidate who meets the requirements will be commissioned as lieu- tenant and will be eligible for a Regular Army commission later.

Direct commissions in the Regu- lar Army are also available. Young women having had at least two years of college standing in the required qualifications are eligible for reserve commissions as second lieutenant, 1st lieutenant or captain.

Deadline for applications is April 1. Further information can be obtained at the Military Science Department office in Building 20.