Placement News...

The Student Placement Bureau is receiving the first of more than 240 companies coming to visit the Student Placement Bureau, Room 1-173. The Placement Interview schedule for the coming week will appear in THE TECH every Tuesday.

The Wellesley Hille Acquaintance Dance is an opportunity to look the field over completely, interview the companies and get a feel for the students’ field of interest and make up your own mind as to what college of a career...

The Placement Bureau personnel wish to point out that, almost without exception, companies will talk to students regardless of their military status, advanced ROTC, or otherwise. Last June a number of students were hired to work from two weeks to a month—or times of reporting for the service. When their service times is completed they will return to their jobs.
