The next few years varies widely, it is estimated, can be absorbed in when 91,000 freshmen enrolled in the United States.

It was an exceedingly import-flow of response to meet these ances, the increased demands for ting and nourishing our present with reasonable accuracy, we om--for some 30,000 engineering asintug for able-bodied males virties by a very sizeable margin.

The number of graduates which, pace of research, both civ-
...

1. Freshmen believe all their pro-les are smart, sophomores know otherwise.

2. Freshmen aren't dry behind the ears. Sophomores are alway 3. Freshmen will take a wooden nicolet. Sophomores will take one two, but few dry behind.

4. Freshmen kiss their dates like his mother. A Sophomore is to be for June Brides.

5. An old thought with a hidden meaning: "If you are surprised at the number of our candidates, conoces."

-—Seneca.

-...-

Shortage Aggravated By War...