Basketball Score
Guessing Contest
Will Start Today

David N. Weber, recently appointed Chestnutfield campus campaign representative, has anounced a basketball score guessing contest in conjunction with Friday night's 'Trots-A-Poppin' basketball game with Stevens Tech. Weber will recall that last year's Nighthawks scored in the region of 1300, and the Students returned the favor with a score of 1500. Hence, a guess of 1500 or better will win a box of candy. The contest will run from 6:00 P.M. until 7:00 P.M. and the names will be announced in the Trots-A-Poppin program. A single entry may be submitted by any member of the Students.

Norwich University, 279-257, and showed up well against the Beevers but fell short, 168-171.
