CHAMBERLAYNE (Continued from Page 2) they please, run about unshaven and in general, lose control with the outside world. On dates they have no conversation other than science and its problems; they forget all manners and etiquettes, and fail to treat their girls as such. Besides this they have an air of superiority which keeps them from mixing with students not in their own category.

University seniors are also slow in making dates, very often calling the same day and slamming the doors on school work. This may be justified somewhat, but the line is used too much to suit these girls.

Another complaint is that Techmen lack initiative—too eager some form of entertainment besides a party and/or Memorial Day. They very rarely think of a play, picnic, or movie (other than a science fiction). They also fail to tell their dates beforehand when definite plans are made.

Baseball (Continued from Page 2) On a regular day, every other day, Tech baseball team rallied strongly, with 4 runs in each of the 5th and 6th innings, to overcome an early 0-8 deficit, to win a success.
