Tired after a long train ride down to New Jersey, the Beaver Lacrosse team bowed in a 7-3 tally last Saturday afternoon at Hoboken. The Techmen, who had been scheduled to fly down for the game, were forced to take a Saturday morning train due to the oil strike, which has caused the canceling of chartered flights.

The Jerseyites grabbed a five-goal lead in the first period and were never in danger after that point. The Techmen played their best game of the season, and the result of the meet, always unpredictable this early in the season, was decided in favor of the mile, where he has built up an excellent record this year. Jerry Carpenter ran the best half of the local field event entries, although he will face a tough field in the shot.

The result of the meet, always uncertain due to the large number of entries, is made even more unpredictable this year by the freshmen rule and the possibility that some schools may not send entries. The freshmen have built up their own individual titles, although they are not as strong as many of the seniors. The freshmen in varsity competition have not been able to get along without the seniors.
