Dormcomm Argues
Laundry Service, Commons Feeding

Two important issues were discussed at the latest DormComm meeting.

In reference to the original propositions, some students have been allowed to transfer their laundry to the Baker House. The second proposition concerned the need for more common areas in the student centers. The committee recommended that the Institute make some suggestions for the allocation of funds for this purpose.

In addition, a social event was announced. The Kangaroo Barbecue will take place on Friday, August 15, in the lobby of Building 10, at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are $1.00 each and will be available at the door.

Local News:

- The Student Faculty Memorial is hosting a blood drive on Tuesday, August 12, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in the lobby of Building 10.
- The Institute is hosting a lecture series on the history of mathematics. The first lecture, on August 13, will be given by Dr. Jane Doe, with the topic "The Development of Algebra in the Islamic World."

The Tech

OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER OF THE UNDERGRADUATES OF MASSACHUSETTS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

VOL. LXIII, NO. 43
CAMBRIDGE, MASS., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1952 5 CENTS

Annual Dormomm Christmas Festival To Be Held At Baker

The Dorm Social Committee will hold a Christmas Festival at Baker on December 1st. The festival will feature games, crafts, and refreshments. The proceeds will be donated to the Boston and Suburban Children's Home.

Religious Office Is Now Established In Memorial

Recently established in Memorial, the religious office is an important addition to the student facilities. It provides a place for students to meet with chaplains and other religious advisors.

Course XIII-C

A committee has been formed to help improve the course structure of the Institute. The committee will meet regularly and will be chaired by Dr. John Doe.

Proposal For Direct Election Of Inscomm Proxy Approved

A recent vote in favor of direct election for the president of Inscomm by the Undergraduate Society Committee was approved at the Inscomm meeting on November 28.

SICC Memorandum To Be Posted

The memorandums will be posted on the Student Council bulletin boards.

Field Day Committee

Held

The Field Day Committee is organizing a special event for the next meeting.

Mathematics Society To Test Calculating Skills Of Freshmen

The Mathematics Society will hold an exam to test the calculating skills of freshmen. The exam will be given on Tuesday, December 2, at 1:00 p.m. in the lobby of Building 10.

Ability, Not Age, The Issue in English School's Livingston

The school decides to hold a debate on the issue of ability versus age in English school's Livingston.

Check on Professor

Professor Livingstone is being checked by the student faculty. The student faculty is concerned about the professor's teaching methods.

DEBATE TEAM WINS

The Debate Team defeated its rival in a debate on "The Effect of Modern Technology on Education." They won both rounds of the debate.

added attraction, keepsakes will be available during the intermission so that all may join in singing and dancing.

Tickets On Sale For Glee Club's Annual Musical

Tickets for the performance of "A Visit to the Moon" will be available starting Tuesday, December 2, in the lobby of Building 10, at $1.75 each.