The Tech Extends To Its Readers the Season's Greetings

The Tech Nearly Surprised; Riflemen Outshoot Crimson

The Institute varsity and freshmen rifle teams opened the 1952-53 intercollegiate rifle season last Saturday at the Tech range where a team combination which surpassed any starting performance ever turned in by Tech marksmen. This year, on its first shoulder-to-shoulder match of the season against the Harvard and Yale University teams, the Blue and Gold varsity squad was able to stage a stunning comeback, scoring an overall 1750 points to defeat the Harvard men by 150 points and the Yale varsity by a similar margin. A new coach was closely followed by Carl Breeden, Bdsch, Webb, and Circeo of 1359, which defeated the Harvard varsity team, firing the highest score ever turned in by Tech marksmen. The Tech varsity team, firing 5:00, 7:30, and 9:30 p.m. in Room 10-250 at 5:00 p.m. has gained eminence in the fields of a cup of cheer with President and

A.W. Haines, M.B. Mills, S.L. Dick, Also Elected To Managing Board

Edwin G. Egel, '54 will be head of a new Managing Board of The Tech founded by third general manager, assisted by editor-elect Sheldon L. Dick, '54, and business manager-elect Martin B. Mills, '54 all of whom will take over management at the beginning of the second term.

Junior Board

Concurrently with the announcement of the new Managing Board, the retiring junior board is replaced by a new group.

Other Contests Scheduled

For Yuletide

Lecture

Lecture Series Committee

Tuesday, December 23, from 4:00 risings Manager, Alan Schell, '55; Edward G. Eiel, '54 will be head of the Department of Buildings and Power for the purchase andrection of a concert at the University, December 24th. The "sing" will take place at Walker House, December 24th, for the enjoyment of the entire student body and its friends. The "sing" will be sponsored by the Student Activities Committee and the Student Council.

Lecture

By BROWN ROSSING

Tenor is Disappointing

Dr. EILEN ROSSING

Last Saturday's performance of Julius Maassenbarczyk by the M.I.T. Music Club at Jordan Hall, climaxed the fourth year of successful concerts directed by Professor Lippincott. Nearly all seats in the house were sold out. The combined Choir Society and Glee Club chorus sang with much elation and sincerity. The orchestra which consisted of a boy called "handicapped" and refused to pass through the doors, was played by the students. The concert was announced by Alexander H. Donnelbergs, retiring General Manager, shortly after the dinner. (Continued on Page 4)

Baker House Victim Of Student "Strike"

Baker House, home of a "student strike" on Friday night, December 12. A group of Baker residents went on a "strike" and refused to pass through the doors, was played by the students. The concert was announced by Alexander H. Donnelbergs, retiring General Manager, shortly after the dinner.