The Beaver wrestlers lost their first match of the season bowing before Amherst, 29-8, last Saturday at the Rockwell Cage. Each team scored one pin but Amherst could claim five decisions to only one for the Beavers. However, the match was closer than the score indicates, since the matches could have gone either way.

In the 182 pound class, Jack Grant lost a close decision to Duane Tank. Although the score was tied at the end of the match, Tank had a size advantage and was awarded a 6-4 win.

Jack Kennedy, last year's New England freshman 130 pound champ, lost to Amherst's Schellenger, the New England Intercollegiate champ, 30-8. The match was hard fought all the way, but Schellenger scored two near pins in the final period to take the victory.

Chuck Burr, at 137, was wrestling for the first time this season, and lost to Dougherty, 9-6. At 147, Larry Berman lost for the first time this year in a close match with Ed Tank, 5-3. This was a close, exciting match, and a heart-breaker for Berman to lose.
