Elections

(Continued from Page 1)

Committee. Year two; Quadrangle Club, Open House Committee. Years one and two; Tech Show, and freshman and sophomore line honors.

Secretary-Treasurer

Raymond D'Alery—Years two and three; housing manager, treasurer, and circulation manager of T. E. N., Outing Club. Years one and three; track. Year two; Field Day Relay. Year one: 5:15 Club and Older Club.

Willard P. Fiske—Year three; sec- torary at Leadership Conferences, Junior Prom Committee. Years one and two; and Public Relations Committee, Young Republicans Club. Year two; Freshman Week Committee. Year one; Freshman Council, chairman of Freshman Class Activities Committee, and Freshman Class Executive Committee.

Ray Eldering—Year three; Schubbard and Black, Military Ball Committee, Bust Club. Years two and three; Variety crew. Years one, two, and three; Catholic Club. Year two; Sophomore Council, Field Day register, Sophomore Mug Lift, Year one, crow and Technician.

David R. Robbins—Year three; secretary of Chi Omega. Years two and three; A. C. E.; Year two; junior-varsity crew. Year one; captain of freshman crew.

Institute Committee Representative

Robert B. Halloway—Year three; president of Biever Key. Years two and three; Public Relations Committee, Field Day and varsity crew. Years two and three; the Armen Janants Committee. Year two; assistant manager of Field Day, Student Government Investigating Committee. Years one and two; Institute Committee Representative. Year one; Freshman Council, and Freshman Dance Committees.

Samuel Lush—Year three; Judicial Committee, Bust Campus House Committee. Years two and three; track, and club. Year one; Student Government Investigating Committee Representative.

George L. Perry—Year three; House president. Years one, two, and three; I. P. C. Representative. Year two; Business Management Association, and assistant personnel manager of The Tech. Year three; H. Tucker—Year three; Young Republican Club. Years two; Business Management Association, and two; 5:15 Club. Year one; Freshman Council representative, and Drums.

Class of 1965 President

Robert W. Morgan—Year two; Sophomore Council, Sophomore Dance Committee, Junior Prom Committees. Years one and two; Executive Committee, and Freshman Council.

Statement: "The most pressing problem facing the next president of our class will be the ensuring proper student government, which is about to be demanded. I state that the Institute Committee, as it is now operating, is extremely inefficient and ineffective. I feel that the next president of our class should support any reorganization plan that will be to the best interest of the class and the students of the Institute. If no acceptable plan is forthcoming, our class must appear the effort with a plan of its own."

David L. Rabe—Year two; Tech Show, Sophomore Cornell. Years one and two; Logosophy Club. Year one; Gee Club.

Statement: "Last year we of '55 had a very successful Freshman Dance. This year we will Field Day but only after the class had been ra-cactivated and developed. The future of the class depends upon development of its potentialities and can be a bright one if it has proper leadership. To help the class attain future success, we need men who are responsible and who are willing to do more than some, so I feel that I meet those conditions. I am volunteering to help the class to have a renamed program at this time."

"In short I promise to serve the class to the best of my ability."

Harry Schorier—Year two; Secrecrui, Junior Prom Committee, Sophomore Council, Sophomore Campus House Committee, and two; track, cross country, student staff of Walker Memorial. Year one; Freshman Council, and Freshman Dance Committees.

Statement: "During the last year and a half, I have seen much of the group from a different viewpoint, but even worse was good. I think that there is much that can be done to improve student government, in particular, more participation by a broader cross-section of our student body."

"With this in mind, I would like to express my pleasure in serving our class in the position of president during our

(Continued on Page 6)