The whole issue of academic freedom was not band on Wednesday night when the investigations of un-orthodox students in the faculty was broached by the Harvard-Radcliffe Committee. Students who failed to join the Harvard-Radcliffe Committee were barred from the administration of the faculty. The professors at the meeting were Dr. J. E. Strick, Montague Institute, and Dr. J. W. Swinmmer, a student at the Yale Law School.

The president of Harvard, Mr. L. S. White, called the faculty meeting at the New Lecture Hall at Harvard that the committee has now met to discuss the academic freedom. He then continued that they discussed the principle of the freedom of thought and the right to express their views without fear of interference. The professors and the students agreed that the committee should be formed to discuss the academic freedom.
