Beaver Marksmen Show Class Against Strong Coast Guard Team

In preparation for the National Intercollegiate Championships, the M.I.T. varsity and freshman rifle teams, having already had a taste of the competition, were preparing for the Coast Guard Academy this past Saturday. According to the results of the meet, the Coast Guard Academy won the championship by a narrow margin of 11 points. The varsity team, which included two freshmen and a sophomore, scored a total of 278, while the Coast Guard scored 289. The freshmen team, composed of one freshman and two sophomores, scored 280.

O'Donnell Leads Engineers In Excellent Track Season

When asked what he liked the most about track, John O'Donnell, captain of the M.I.T. track team, said, "I like the start, because it's where everything begins, and I like the race, because it's where everything comes together." O'Donnell, who has been on the team for three years, has shown remarkable improvement in his performance. In the 110 meter hurdles, he set a new record of 14.8 seconds, which is the fastest time ever recorded on the track.

Squashmen Lose 9-0

In Season's Finale

The Squashmen lost to the Yale Bulldogs 9-0 in their last regular season match. The Bulldogs, who are ranked second in the nation, have a strong team that has dominated the competition this season. The Squashmen, who are ranked fourth in the nation, were unable to compete with the Bulldogs' strong lineup.

In a real way, Reader's Digest helps continue the education of the busy man, recognizing that he enjoys having an interest outside the academic side of M.I.T. "But no matter who is running a race, or going through a workout, Bob has a word of encouragement. It's the things like this that make a great sport greater," claims O'D.

On the basis of season performance, Williams will be established a favorite to retain its crown. Bowdoin, however, finished second in last year's meet. Even though it lost over the entire field of Northeastern States, it included Amherst, Boston University, Springfield, Holy Cross, Wesleyan, Tech, and Williams.

The track team apparently returns Bob's feelings, for he was elected captain of the track team on overlapping majority. For no matter who is running a race, or going through a workout, Bob has a word of encouragement. It's the things like this that make a great sport greater.

The Rabbit, chartered by Arthur B. Lineberry, will return to the track team for two more years. His pet race is the middle distance men. His pet race is the half mile, but he occasionally runs on the mile relay team. He was on a member of the relay team that got him the biggest thrill in track. The Technology mile relay had not been run for some time because of the rules of the part of the 1952 season. The boys then finally hit the boards at the N. Y. A.

Each month, Reader's Digest editors comb through more than a week's worth of publications than any one person could read in two years, and select whatever seems of outstanding interest. In March Reader's Digest, you'll be interested in

"Amazing variety and practical wisdom"

By Dr. Andrew W. Blackwood

One of the 1953 issues of Reader's Digest was taken up with the election of the new officers chosen were: Commodore—John H. Rieman, of Harvard, and of course, Yale, in their last outing.

The track team apparently returns Bob's feelings, for he was elected captain of the track team on overlapping majority. For no matter who is running a race, or going through a workout, Bob has a word of encouragement. It's the things like this that make a great sport greater.

The Rabbit, chartered by Arthur B. Lineberry, will return to the track team for two more years. His pet race is the middle distance men. His pet race is the half mile, but he occasionally runs on the mile relay team. He was on a member of the relay team that got him the biggest thrill in track. The Technology mile relay had not been run for some time because of the rules of the part of the 1952 season. The boys then finally hit the boards at the N. Y. A.