''55 season a success''

I've been a Beaver football fan since grade school and have always been proud of the club, but last fall was probably the best season of any I can remember. It was a real '55 experience.

The Beaver team started fast, with forward Richard J. DiBona in the lineup. In the first game, against Harvard, the Beavers won 21-0. It was a good start.

The next game was against the New England team, which we beat 41-0. This was a good victory.

In the third game, the Beavers played against Greater Boston teams, and the team was coached by John T. Kennaday. We won this game.

In the fourth game, the Beavers played against Greater Boston's better teams, and the team was coached by John T. Kennaday. We won this game.
