Incomm Heads Meet With UBB

At a meeting of the Undergraduate Budget Board last week, the following topics were considered: the report by the Chairman of the Board on the proposed changes in the Student Union and the financial aspects of the Board's decision. The meeting was attended by members of the Board and the Executive Assistant to the President, who is also a member of the UBB.

The committee came to no final agreement on the question of whether or not the Institute should continue to allow students to use the Institute's facilities for groups such as the Catholic Club. The committee was concerned that changes should be made as professor.

Students Take Part In Successful Drive To Help Red Cross

On Monday evening institute students joined forces with students of other neighboring colleges in a new experiment in community service. About three hundred students took part in the Student Red Cross Drive, their purpose was to enlist additional students in areas of Boston where Red Cross local organization is weakest.

The drive was organized at the Hancock Building and transported in special buses to designated points from which the student teams set out on a house to house campaign. Most of the teams consisted of a boy and a girl, working together. A total of more than 1,500 solicitors were obtained during the three-hour drive. Companies Find Much Competition In Efforts To Secure Graduates

Recent reports indicate a report made early this year by the National Industrial Conference Board after surveying 126 companies was very accurate in predicting the demand for college graduates. The Board described the present employment situation as an "all-around" that will last for some time.

Many seniors at the Institute have "shopped around" the last few years by taking advertised ROTC. Because they do not anticipate employment in industry for at least five years, they do not know of the requirements for this type of college. A total of more than 1,500 solicitors were obtained during the three-hour drive. A total of more than 1,500 solicitors were obtained during the three-hour drive.

Deferred Offers

It has been pointed out previously by THE TECH that many companies have deferred offers to prospectives employees of the Institute. Companies have come prepared to make offers of which we are aware that the majority have already received.
