Text Of Dean Bowditch's Memorandum

The following is the full text of the section of a letter written by Dean of Student Living, E. Francis Bowditch, to all members of the dormitory and housing staff.

It is believed that there are necessary basic rules of any dormitory, or for that matter, any college, which are essential to maintain a collegial and proper environment for the student body to function as a community. These rules, although basic, are designed to be merely the starting point for the development of self-responsibility. The college and the dormitory staff have a moral responsibility to enforce these rules.

1. The dormitory is not a social center and all social activities should be conducted in the common areas.
2. Social activities in the dormitory at any time are not to be disruptive to the dormitory staff, students, or the college.
3. The dormitory is not a place for private social activities.
4. The dormitory is not a place for private social activities.
5. The dormitory is not a place for private social activities.

ROTC Rifle Team Completes Season

The M.I.T. ROTC rifle team has completed its most successful season since the team was organized in 1946. After losing the first three matches, the team won eleven of the last fourteen matches and ended the season with a eleven out of seventeen record. In the Heard Trophy competition, the first team tied with Boston University for first place in the New England area by five points over Yale. The second team placed fourth in the area with a 875/1000 score. In the championship, twenty-four teams competed representing eighteen colleges and universities of New England.

The National Intercollegiate Ranges, the team placed the final rounds with a 4728/880 score. The team improved its season to 740/1000 in the final round. The results of competition have not been announced. The following team members will... (Continued on Page 2)

Nothing-no nothing beats better taste

and LUCKIES

TASTE BETTER!

Cleaner, Fresher, Smoother!

Ask yourself this question: Why do I smoke?

You know yourself, you smoke for enjoyment. And you get enjoyment only from the taste of a cigarette.

Luckies taste better—cleaner, fresher, smoother! Why? Luckies are made better to taste better. And, what's more, Luckies are made of fine tobacco. L.S./M.F.T.—Luckies Strike Means Fine Tobacco.

Be Happy—GO LUCKY!

College Students Prefer Luckies in Nation-wide Survey

Nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 40 leading colleges reveals more student college Luckies than any other cigarette by wide margins. No. 1 with college students—Luckies taste better. Survey also shows Lucky Strike goes for more smokers in those colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.
