Dormconn
(Continued from page 1) helped to adjust themselves. The Dean said that he would allow mature students to move for financial reasons.
One of the committee members told the Dean: "Are you trying to put everyone in a common mode?" Barn-ditch replied that the question modest"; the student agreed. The Dean said that he was not trying to do that, but that people must learn to get along with others. He said that if they generally admitted unstable young men, Stetson Hall '54 would have no unstable students are admitted, why are you trying not to regulate them with those rules?" even unques-Linde suggested that the wording of rule number three be changed from
"No room changes will be considered during the first three weeks of the term." to "No room changes will be made."
A final point was the rewording of the members in attendance voted in turn the proposal of Charles Manson, president of the Territorial Committee Samuel L. Linds, Gerald Percell '56, and Leonard
Williams, president of East
Campus, Baker, and Burton
College respectively.
Debbie Reynolds
(Continued from page 1)
Debbie Reynolds is really a Drama entertainer. When she had left the stage the audience rewarded her with their sweetheart song "Dream Girl."
Debbie Reynolds with their sweetheart
song "Dream Girl."
(Continued from page 1)

SAILING
(Seduced from page 1)

One of the committees of the Student Government was not satisfied with the changes which were acceptable and Judicial Committee rewrite present heads of the Institute, Dormitory regulations of the Student Government. The question was raised as to whether or not the Individuals and the like. The question was supposed to search drawers for hot rooms. He said that their duty of understanding that the recently reordering of private effects in dormitory rooms be permitted except in special circumstances of qualified personnel rooms. He maintained for once instead of doing the searching he wanted to try the students for themselves. Bowditch said that he was not trying to do this,
but that people must learn to get
along with others. He said that if
they generally admitted unstable young
men, Stetson Hall '54 would have no
unstable students are admitted, why are you trying to regulate them with those rules?" even unques-Linde suggested that the wording of
rule number three be changed from
"No room changes will be considered
during the first three weeks of the
term." to "No room changes will be
made."
A final point was the rewording of
the members in attendance voted
in turn the proposal of Charles Manson, president
of the Territorial Committee Samuel L. Linds, Gerald Percell '56, and Leonard
Williams, president of East
Campus, Baker, and Burton
College respectively.
Debbie Reynolds
(Continued from page 1)
Debbie Reynolds is really a Drama
entertainer. When she had left the
stage the audience rewarded her
with their sweetheart song "Dream
Girl."
Debbie Reynolds with their sweetheart
song "Dream Girl."
(Continued from page 1)

SAILING
(Seduced from page 1)

One of the committees of the Student Government was not satisfied with the changes which
were acceptable and Judicial Committee rewrite
present heads of the Institute, Dormitory regulations of the Student Government. The question was raised as to whether or not the Individuals and the like. The question was
supposed to search drawers for hot
rooms. He said that their duty of
understanding that the recently reor-
dering of private effects in dormitory
rooms be permitted except in special
circumstances of qualified personnel
rooms. He maintained for once instead of doing the
searching he wanted to try the
students for themselves. Bowditch
said that he was not trying to do this,
but that people must learn to get
along with others. He said that if
they generally admitted unstable young
men, Stetson Hall '54 would have no
unstable students are admitted, why are you trying
to regulate them with those rules?" even unques-Linde suggested that the wording of
rule number three be changed from
"No room changes will be considered
during the first three weeks of the
term." to "No room changes will be
made."
A final point was the rewording of
the members in attendance voted
in turn the proposal of Charles Manson, president
of the Territorial Committee Samuel L. Linds, Gerald Percell '56, and Leonard
Williams, president of East
Campus, Baker, and Burton
College respectively.
Debbie Reynolds
(Continued from page 1)
Debbie Reynolds is really a Drama
entertainer. When she had left the
stage the audience rewarded her
with their sweetheart song "Dream
Girl."
Debbie Reynolds with their sweetheart
song "Dream Girl."
(Continued from page 1)

SAILING
(Seduced from page 1)

One of the committees of the Student Government was not satisfied with the changes which
were acceptable and Judicial Committee rewrite
present heads of the Institute, Dormitory regulations of the Student Government. The question was raised as to whether or not the Individuals and the like. The question was
supposed to search drawers for hot
rooms. He said that their duty of
understanding that the recently reor-
dering of private effects in dormitory
rooms be permitted except in special
circumstances of qualified personnel
rooms. He maintained for once instead of doing the
searching he wanted to try the
students for themselves. Bowditch
said that he was not trying to do this,
but that people must learn to get
along with others. He said that if
they generally admitted unstable young
men, Stetson Hall '54 would have no
unstable students are admitted, why are you trying
to regulate them with those rules?" even unques-Linde suggested that the wording of
rule number three be changed from
"No room changes will be considered
during the first three weeks of the
term." to "No room changes will be
made."
A final point was the rewording of
the members in attendance voted
in turn the proposal of Charles Manson, president
of the Territorial Committee Samuel L. Linds, Gerald Percell '56, and Leonard
Williams, president of East
Campus, Baker, and Burton
College respectively.
Debbie Reynolds
(Continued from page 1)
Debbie Reynolds is really a Drama
entertainer. When she had left the
stage the audience rewarded her
with their sweetheart song "Dream
Girl."
Debbie Reynolds with their sweetheart
song "Dream Girl."
(Continued from page 1)

SAILING
(Seduced from page 1)

One of the committees of the Student Government was not satisfied with the changes which
were acceptable and Judicial Committee rewrite
present heads of the Institute, Dormitory regulations of the Student Government. The question was raised as to whether or not the Individuals and the like. The question was
supposed to search drawers for hot
rooms. He said that their duty of
understanding that the recently reor-
dering of private effects in dormitory
rooms be permitted except in special
circumstances of qualified personnel
rooms. He maintained for once instead of doing the
searching he wanted to try the
students for themselves. Bowditch
said that he was not trying to do this,
but that people must learn to get
along with others. He said that if
they generally admitted unstable young
men, Stetson Hall '54 would have no
unstable students are admitted, why are you trying
to regulate them with those rules?" even unques-Linde suggested that the wording of
rule number three be changed from
"No room changes will be considered
during the first three weeks of the
term." to "No room changes will be
made."
A final point was the rewording of
the members in attendance voted
in turn the proposal of Charles Manson, president
of the Territorial Committee Samuel L. Linds, Gerald Percell '56, and Leonard
Williams, president of East
Campus, Baker, and Burton
College respectively.
Debbie Reynolds
(Continued from page 1)
Debbie Reynolds is really a Drama
entertainer. When she had left the
stage the audience rewarded her
with their sweetheart song "Dream
Girl."
Debbie Reynolds with their sweetheart
song "Dream Girl."
(Continued from page 1)

SAILING
(Seduced from page 1)

One of the committees of the Student Government was not satisfied with the changes which
were acceptable and Judicial Committee rewrite
present heads of the Institute, Dormitory regulations of the Student Government. The question was raised as to whether or not the Individuals and the like. The question was
supposed to search drawers for hot
rooms. He said that their duty of
understanding that the recently reor-
dering of private effects in dormitory
rooms be permitted except in special
circumstances of qualified personnel
rooms. He maintained for once instead of doing the
searching he wanted to try the
students for themselves. Bowditch
said that he was not trying to do this,
but that people must learn to get
along with others. He said that if
they generally admitted unstable young
men, Stetson Hall '54 would have no
unstable students are admitted, why are you trying
to regulate them with those rules?" even unques-Linde suggested that the wording of
rule number three be changed from
"No room changes will be considered
during the first three weeks of the
term." to "No room changes will be
made."
A final point was the rewording of
the members in attendance voted
in turn the proposal of Charles Manson, president
of the Territorial Committee Samuel L. Linds, Gerald Percell '56, and Leonard
Williams, president of East
Campus, Baker, and Burton
College respectively.
Debbie Reynolds
(Continued from page 1)
Debbie Reynolds is really a Drama
entertainer. When she had left the
stage the audience rewarded her
with their sweetheart song "Dream
Girl."
Debbie Reynolds with their sweetheart
song "Dream Girl."
(Continued from page 1)