Anyone here named "Cannonball" Pribeshier?

BASES FULL. Fat part of the opposition batting order coming up. The manager needs a new pitcher—fast! Anybody have a good right-handed broadside in an emergency—reached for the telephone. It connects bell and dugout. "Cannonball" was selected to put in.

Ever wonder why people place so much faith in telephones in time of emergency? It's because they know it is dependable—a real friend.

This dependability is a tribute to the men and women of the Bell System. They have forever been working on new ideas, improving old devices to give the nation the best telephone service in the world.

The interesting and rewarding work they do could be your future. The Bell Telephone Company is ready to give you details about the many opportunities for employment in the Bell System.

Editor's note: Mr. Pribeshier implies that we have not given "fair treatment" to the "unknown"—or any other person. If we were guilty of this, Mr. Pribeshier's letter would not have appeared in this newspaper. We always try to treat our readers fairly in our editorial decisions.

(Continued on page 5)