For consideration of the questions dividing both arguments. We have not disregarded those opinions in reaching our own conclusions. One telegram requesting another which is an opportunity to combat it. If respect for the point arrived due to any printing of the full text of the Dean's memorandum it is perhaps due to the contents of the report rather than to the printing of it. What Mr. Broomes fails to see is that it's a news item is worthy of editorial comment. It is certainly worthy of being written as a news story. We himself consider the story on page one of Friday's issue of THE TECH a fair and objective one. It was not printed at the expense of any other news story which was deleted to make room for it. It's author was well aware that certain items were subject to alteration and clearly indicated the changes that were being considered. The short paragraph preceding the text of the memorandum also indicated this fact.

L.F.C. WEEKEND

Joe Gogler and his respective wives, Flynn were in the favor of LFC's father-covered folders describing the weekend and naming the personalities in charge of the dance.

Four p.m. Saturday saw activities opened when the College of Fine Arts and their date attended afternoon cocktail parties. The hosts were Chi Phi, Sigma Nu, and Delta Tau Delta. The cocktail parties were attended em- phatically as was the formal.

Phi Mu Delta and Delta Chi complemented the evening schedule with a formal dance, and the party while Phi Delta Epsilon ran a third party at the Cam- bridge Room House, a "natural" for an informal affair.
