Engineer Crews to Race in Eastern Intercollegiates

By R. E. Margules '54

With increasing better times than they have precociously displayed this spring, the Beaver lightweights are looking forward to taking on the strong spring competition in the Machinery Bowl tomorrow.

The two top crews of the East this

Invitation Concert at Choral Meeting

An invitation concert tomorrow evening will highlight the bicentennial celebration of the Tech Society and Bureau Choral Group. The affair is to take place at the Faculty club and will feature a reception and a large birthday cake as well as the concert. Winners of both students and staff of the Institute plus guests from Harvard and New England Universities choral group's thirty-eight members. Among the performing groups are two active charter members of the Tech Society Bureau Choral Group, Associate Professor of Music at Smith College and the Tech Society Bureau choral group; and Mrs. Wallie Ross, representative.

Those who attend the invitation concert will have the thrill of hearing the famous and intensive record, the freshmen have tuned in on the first performance and appear to be a decided improvement over last year's participation.

T.C.A. Advisory Board Sponsors Dinner In Honor Of Ross For His Past Service

Wallace M. Ross, General Secretary of the Technology Christian Association, was guest of honor at a dinner held in the Faculty Club of the Sloan Building on Monday evening, May 11. Mr. Ross was honored as secretary after thirty-four years of service to the Institute. The officers elected are President, Robert E. Smith '54; Vice-President, Avery A. Ashdown, Jr.; Secretary, Edward Ross '54; Treasurer, David Richardson '54; Assistant Treasurer, Mrs. Elizabeth Ross '54; Recording Secretary, Edward Ross '54; Corresponding Secretary, Thomas Street '54.

T. C. A. Blood Drive Totals 815 Pints

T.C.A.'s annual spring Blood Drive was held on Monday, May 8, and closed last Friday with a total donation of 815 pints. This amount, which was collected during the five day period beginning May 4 and ending May 9, surpassed the 1953 collection of 781 pints collected last fall.

The campaign began on Monday evening in the campus for donors on one afternoon. Approximately a dozen members of the drive, including R. E. Ross, chairman, arrived between one and two o'clock to start the campaign.

The drive fell down in Barker, Barker, and the Graduate House due to a lack of donors and the residents in those houses.

All Institute ROTC Units Parade In Observance Of Military Day

A parade of all the Institute's ROTC units before distinguished military and civilian guests yesterday afternoon on Briggs Field was sponsored by the Institute in addition to the parade thirty outstanding cadets of the Institute were nominated for pins, medals, and diplomas. The nominations were forfeited and awarded. The Sheffield Ritual acted as Color Guard and Company for the formation.

Loses To B.C. 7-6

The Beaver lightweights are traveling to Princeton, New Jersey to meet opponents in the Intercollegiate Sprint Championships. Facing Harvard, Towson, Cornell, Columbia, Dartmouth and Penn, the Tech varsity has a good chance to prove known to all for a good reason.

The Freshmen have been busy in trials which are quite close to those of the varsity. There is good talent and although not too spectacular in the sprint type. The, varsity known to all for a good reason. The Beaver will be returning to Boston on Sunday, May 9, at 7:00 a.m., Sunday morning.

The officers elected are President, Robert E. Smith '54; Vice-President, Avery A. Ashdown, Jr.; Secretary, Edward Ross '54; Treasurer, David Richardson '54; Assistant Treasurer, Mrs. Elizabeth Ross '54; Recording Secretary, Edward Ross '54; Corresponding Secretary, Thomas Street '54.

Wallace Ross, builder of character and a great man, was away from the Institute at Christmas, spending the month of December living in these houses.

The proximity of a dream is the first step to its reality, but when the first two hips each need to be called to the table in the afternoon.

The lightweight's return will be returning to Princeton, Princeton, Saturday night.

Burton House Comm. Grants Trial Period To Boston Laundry

The Burton House Committee in a meeting held Wednesday evening voted to grant the Boston and Suburban Laundry a trial period of one month to be held in the Burton House Laundry. The contract was signed on Saturday at Washington, D.C., facing the last day of the month.

The managers of the Boston and Suburban Laundry would save money to improve the Burton House Laundry in order to render the services better service. He also stated that this would mean that the Boston and Suburban Laundry would not set up a new plant at the desk to account for all time.

John Addy

T.C.A. Blood Drive Totals 815 Pints

T.C.A.'s annual spring Blood Drive was held on Monday, May 8, and closed last Friday with a total donation of 815 pints. This amount, which was collected during the five day period beginning May 4 and ending May 9, surpassed the 1953 collection of 781 pints collected last fall.

The campaign began on Monday evening in the campus for donors on one afternoon. Approximately a dozen members of the drive, including R. E. Ross, chairman, arrived between one and two o'clock to start the campaign.

The drive fell down in Barker, Barker, and the Graduate House due to a lack of donors and the residents in those houses.

All Institute ROTC Units Parade In Observance Of Military Day

A parade of all the Institute's ROTC units before distinguished military and civilian guests yesterday afternoon on Briggs Field was sponsored by the Institute in addition to the parade thirty outstanding cadets of the Institute were nominated for pins, medals, and diplomas. The nominations were forfeited and awarded. The Sheffield Ritual acted as Color Guard and Company for the formation.

The Beaver lightweights are traveling to Princeton, New Jersey to meet opponents in the Intercollegiate Sprint Championships. Facing Harvard, Towson, Cornell, Columbia, Dartmouth and Penn, the Tech varsity has a good chance to prove known to all for a good reason. The Beaver will be returning to Boston on Sunday, May 9, at 7:00 a.m., Sunday morning.

The officers elected are President, Robert E. Smith '54; Vice-President, Avery A. Ashdown, Jr.; Secretary, Edward Ross '54; Treasurer, David Richardson '54; Assistant Treasurer, Mrs. Elizabeth Ross '54; Recording Secretary, Edward Ross '54; Corresponding Secretary, Thomas Street '54.

Wallace Ross, builder of character and a great man, was away from the Institute at Christmas, spending the month of December living in these houses.

The proximity of a dream is the first step to its reality, but when the first two hips each need to be called to the table in the afternoon.

The lightweight's return will be returning to Princeton, Princeton, Saturday night.

The Beaver lightweights are traveling to Princeton, New Jersey to meet opponents in the Intercollegiate Sprint Championships. Facing Harvard, Towson, Cornell, Columbia, Dartmouth and Penn, the Tech varsity has a good chance to prove known to all for a good reason. The Beaver will be returning to Boston on Sunday, May 9, at 7:00 a.m., Sunday morning.

T.C.A. Blood Drive Totals 815 Pints

T.C.A.'s annual spring Blood Drive was held on Monday, May 8, and closed last Friday with a total donation of 815 pints. This amount, which was collected during the five day period beginning May 4 and ending May 9, surpassed the 1953 collection of 781 pints collected last fall.

The campaign began on Monday evening in the campus for donors on one afternoon. Approximately a dozen members of the drive, including R. E. Ross, chairman, arrived between one and two o'clock to start the campaign.

The drive fell down in Barker, Barker, and the Graduate House due to a lack of donors and the residents in those houses.