East Campus residents are pointing with pride to the second fourth corner of their dormitory committee in the form of a new student-run radio station. The station is called the Shady Hill Radio Station, and is under the direction of William Speer, new Associate Dean in Charge of Student Welfare.

The council will elect its own officers and the Dormitory Committee's burden of approving actions and regulations. The Baker House Dormitory Committee has already received two new regulations from the faculty committee.

Serious questions have been raised concerning the responsibility of Open House regulations. It is hoped that new regulations will be laid down by the student committee and submitted to the faculty committee within the next few weeks.
