The College Press

(Continued from page 1)

The rules will be, and whether or not the petition for the referendum against hazing will be enforced, will be decided at the Andover Conference on Student-Faculty relations will appear in the next number.

Robber apprehended

(Continued from page 1)

well dressed. He did not give a full story under questioning. Police believe that he has been operating in this area for five or six months. He is being held at the county jail for seven-day action.

NEW COLLEGE PLAN

with special student rates call Kenmore 6-2700

also visit THE BALINESE ROOM

dining, dancing, entertainment FRIDAY, SATURDAY NIGHTS

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1953

The Busk Leaguer

(Continued from page 2)

game in hand. The two rexf impli- ed by Sigma Phi Epsilon were en- prise ignorant of the rules. This column would like to repeat the plea for all booms to send only competent men as intramural umpires.

Excellent Selections in Style and Fabric....

Fine Values at Every Price Level...

MEN'S CLOTHING

The clothing available to you at The Coop is the result of a deter- mined effort to provide a wide choice of fabric, color and style. Every garment and every manufacturer is carefully selected because of some particular value represented in price, style or quality. This is true whether the garment is in the regular stock of our Clothing Department or a Made-to-Measure suit hailed to your own particular requirements for fit, fabric and model. You are urged to visit this department for your clothing requirements.

Suit prices start at............. $50.00

Topcoats at.................... $50.00

Overcoats at................... $50.00

Sport Coats at................ $12.50

Flannel Trousers at............ $12.95

Raincoats at................... $16.75

Made-to-Measure Suits at..... $85.00

Made-to-Measure Sport Coats at... $60.00

DEFERRED PAYMENT PLAN AVAILABLE ON CHARGE PURCHASES

Limited to Clothing Dept., on initial purchases of $25.
No down payment. No carrying charges. For example, on October charges pay 1/3 before Nov. 25, Dec. 25 and Jan. 25 to receive The Coop charge Patronage Refund.

THE COOP

HARVARD SQUARE STORE

Eight-letter word meaning “real beer”!

The word is “Schaefer”, and it's no pudg it means "real beer," Schaufer, brewed by America's oldest brewer of lager beer, isn't just another "super-light, super-dry" beer. Schaefer is light and dry, but it retains its true beer character, too. It has the flavor, bouquet and distinct characteristics that make beer so distinctive a beverage. Try a glass of real beer soon.

Schaefer is real beer!