How the stars got started

LIZABETH SCOTT says: "I got my theatrical training in the school of hard knocks. Students used to meet at a movie theater and practice their lines as an understudy. I made it out of circumstance and the initiation of my career. Then, signed for a tiny bit part, I was switched to leading ladies. My career had begun!"

the former world record. In the finals, Bartlett beat out Bob McNeff of the U.S., Roger Blacker of Great Britain, and Pat Ellis of France, all three runners close behind, respectively. Bartlett also spoke about the training that went into the making of a champion, the sacrifices such training necessitates, and the sacrifices of training:

Several other items were brought up. The voluntary payment for tape in the laundry has not been successful. Most of the soap is gone and very little money has been received for it. Also, a check account has been established for the committee, with the home chairman and the treasurer empowered to write checks as co-signers. The Barton lounge is being renamed Talbot Lounge.

The committee is looking for an architect to buy plans for a new commons room. It was suggested that a student might be able to work on the project in connection with a course.
