WE HAVE A LIST

The start of a new year too often forces us to dust off our crystal balls to determine what the new year holds in store for us; or sometimes we are called upon to look back, with hindsight upon the events of the this year through which we have just passed. We are admonished to look with favor, instead of criticism, and to commend all the good things which we have seen. But rather than to have it said that we are hostile to accomplishments, we have instead composed a list—incomplete as it is—of people and things which we would never have missed.

To the Editor of The Tech:

"An Unprecedented Scandal." It seems to be getting more and more fashionable to speak with approval of the current religious revival. I wonder if the wisdom of such a revival have, for its adherents, been seriously afloat. They had been prepared to speak of evil, and not themselves the evil. The situation at the Institute is a case in point. The impression is im-

Bob Warshawer As UMOC, Gets "Suitable Award"

Today, Bob Warshawer will get his last chance in the Warrens to prove that he is a bright star in the universe. The Tech Board of Directors has decided to give him an award for outstanding service to the Institute in his capacity as a freshman representative. The award, called the "Bob Warshawer Award," will be given to the individual who has done the most for the Institute in the past year.

The popular board member, who has been active in almost every facet of the Tech, will receive a special plaque for his efforts. The plaque will be presented to him at a special ceremony next week.
