The class reunion at his alma mater, Massachussetts College, was an eye-opener for Ed Mahler. The talk among the Class of '50 switched to jobs, $6 had taken for granted that everybody was happy with his work.

Then he found that some of his classmates, or three jobs since leaving school. Others had kept the same job, if their work was satisfied. By ed- quisition of his first job, and every- one make it a lifetime career, Ed suddenly decided on his own. He also pointed out that the tickets had not yet come from the printer.
