Tech Mermen Twice Beaten By Harvard And Conn. U., Freestyle Team Wins

Last month the Beaver varsity swim team was trounced twice by strong squads from the University of Connecticut and Harvard by scores of 71-27 and 72-18 respectively.

On Saturday, January 9, Conn. U. dumped Tech by sweeping all events but the final relay. Superiority in all three strokes enabled the Connecticut swimmers to gain and hold onto an unassailable margin.

The trio of Bob Jantzen '56, Walt Hubbard, and Walt Hamilton, and the 200-yard breast stroke, the 440-yard freestyle, and the 50-yard free, and those events went to John Rouble, Hal Nixon, and Bob Jantzen '56.

On January 13, the Beavers were again swamped as a strong Harvard squad outclassed them in all 100-yard freestyle: Winchell (Conn.), Roberts (MIT), and Don Bailey '54 outswam Hamilton (MIT), Kerrigan (Conn.), and Mason '54 in the 220-yard freestyle. In diving, where Tidor and Jim Preyer '51 roped second and third behind Dollin of Harvard, Don Follin took third in the 150-yard medley, while Bob Jantzen won a close second in a hard-fought race with Harvard's Mulvey. For Tech's only racing second of the evening.

Harvard dominated the rest of the meet, taking first and second in the 200-yard breast stroke, the 440-yard freestyle, and the final relay, thus coming out on the long end of a 91-31 contest.
