Associate Dean Ronald H. Robnett Dead at Age 48

Professor Ronald H. Robnett, Associate Dean of the School of Industrial Administration, was the Institute since 1952, died at his home in Winthrop, Massachusetts, on March 14. He was forty-eight years old.

A native of Salem, Oregon, where he was educated, Professor Robnett was educated at the University of Oregon by the degree of bachelor of science in engineering economics. He served at Harvard University by the degree of master of business administration in 1948, the year he joined the staff of the Institute as an Assistant in the Department of Business and Engineering Administration. He was promoted to the rank of assistant professor in 1944, professor of accounting in 1947, and associate dean in 1951. He served as fiscal officer of M.I.T.'s Division of Industrial Cooperation, and during 1945-46 was assistant director of the Division, accounting at Harvard University.

Dean Robnett was a member of the Committee's Educational Board on the School of Industrial Administration and the Institute's Graduate Committee with his contractors. In 1942 he was a member of the Advisory Committee of the Engineering School.

dormitory Council twice turned down the motion by Leonard Wheaton ’ 54 to reinstate Gerald Perloff ’ 54 that body at its Tuesday meeting. Director of the student government, Perloff had claimed that according to the committee’s constitution, each member is permitted three absences from four academic terms. The committee, however, interpreted the phrase “absence” to mean attending the entire period between dormitory elections, an entire year.

In addition, Perloff claimed that one of the meetings at which he was absent was of the Legislation. Charles Mauldin ’ 54, who was chairman of the committee, did not live in the dormitory for the Tuesday meeting.

At a follow-up of the dormitory Council, he stated that the body at its Tuesday meeting. At the same time, Perloff had claimed that according to the committee’s constitution, each member is permitted three absences from four academic terms. The committee, however, interpreted the phrase “absence” to mean attending the entire period between dormitory elections, an entire year.

In addition, Perloff claimed that one of the meetings at which he was absent was of the Legislation. Charles Mauldin ’ 54, who was chairman of the committee, did not live in the dormitory for the Tuesday meeting.

Top H.C. Tie Alumni, 6-6, In Annual Battle

The Tech-Auburn hockey game, played at Boston Arena, ended in a 6-6 tie for the third time in the four games played to date.

On Monday evening, March 6, the intramural all-stars will face the varsity in a benefit doubleheader.

On Sunday, March 5, the alumni team will face the varsity in a benefit doubleheader.

On Monday evening, March 6, the intramural all-stars will face the varsity in a benefit doubleheader.

On Sunday, March 5, the alumni team will face the varsity in a benefit doubleheader.

Miss Tech Show

All-Start Selections Made For Coming Varsity Tilt

On Monday evening, March 6, the intramural all-stars will face the varsity in a benefit doubleheader. The all-stars will make the following selections for this year:

Forwards: William Altman, Graduate House; Ken Melzer ’ 56, East Campus; Max Leitner ’ 56, Graduate House; Larry Kaufman, Graduate House; John Postlethwaite, Graduate House.

The all-stars will be picked by these men. For Freshman, William Melzer, and Erman, standing well over 6’4” and weighing in at 240 pounds, a Texas Texas player is expected to team with Frank Bowers ’ 54 and Melrose (Williams) to control the all-important rebounding department. The out- standing shooting needs to break the varsity’s annals will be supplied by Cezaros Rosso and John ‘Jock’ Cate, an 5’10” man of whom possess excellent shooting ability.

The all-stars began a week of intensive drills this Monday night at the dining hall, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

Florida Gators

The freshmen five, possessors of an average height of 5’10”, and a weight of about 180 pounds, will undoubtedly be the backbone of the varsity team this year. They will consist of John Paskhauser, Mike Gough ’ 56, and John Reed ’ 56, from the all-stars.

Harvard Is First, MIT Takes Fifth

In a debate held on the campus last month, the Harvard debate team won 6-1 out of twenty-four participating college teams. The debate was held in a gymnasium at the end of the debate season.

The topic of the debate was: Resolved—That the United States Should Adopt a Policy of Free Trade. The debate was held in a gymnasium at the end of the debate season.

All-Star Selections Made For Coming Varsity Tilt

On Monday evening, March 6, the intramural all-stars will face the varsity in a benefit doubleheader. The all-stars will make the following selections for this year:

Forwards: William Altman, Graduate House; Ken Melzer ’ 56, East Campus; Max Leitner ’ 56, Graduate House; Larry Kaufman, Graduate House; John Postlethwaite, Graduate House.

The all-stars will be picked by these men. For Freshman, William Melzer, and Erman, standing well over 6’4” and weighing in at 240 pounds, a Texas Texas player is expected to team with Frank Bowers ’ 54 and Melrose (Williams) to control the all-important rebounding department. The out- standing shooting needs to break the varsity’s annals will be supplied by Cezaros Rosso and John ‘Jock’ Cate, an 5’10” man of whom possess excellent shooting ability.

The all-stars began a week of intensive drills this Monday night at the dining hall, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday.

Florida Gators

The freshmen five, possessors of an average height of 5’10”, and a weight of about 180 pounds, will undoubtedly be the backbone of the varsity team this year. They will consist of John Paskhauser, Mike Gough ’ 56, and John Reed ’ 56, from the all-stars.