chapter has in the past ignored the restrictive clause in its national constitution and would do as in the future.

2) This fraternity has a clause that is racial in nature in its national constitution and ritual, as well as a restrictive resolution. Partial removal of these restrictive clauses is likely within the next six years, but 10 to 20 years are felt to be necessary for complete removal. So far there has been no attempt to introduce a motion at the national convention to remove these clause, but these clauses are not felt to be necessary for the immediate future.

3) This fraternity has a clause in its national constitution which makes removal difficult for a chapter. This fraternity has been very active both regionally and nationally in attempts to remove these clauses.
