Hoosters Down Stevens, 70 – 60, Hess, Britt Shines

M.I.T.'s two starting guards, Carl Hess '55 and Jack Britt '55, carried the Engineers' attack as they defeated Harvard 70 to 60 Wednesday at Walker Memorial.

The Tech's attack started fast, as Dave Nutt '55, improving consistently, made his way to a 6-4 lead at the end. Dick Daniel '55 and Walt Lawson '54, went down in their first try. The other unbeaten man, John Hirschi '56, was by a narrow margin.

The Techmen started fast, as Dave Nutt '55, improving consistently, made his way to a 6-4 lead at the end. Dick Daniel '55 and Walt Lawson '54, went down in their first try. The other unbeaten man, John Hirschi '56, was by a narrow margin.

The Techmen started fast, as Dave Nutt '55, improving consistently, made his way to a 6-4 lead at the end. Dick Daniel '55 and Walt Lawson '54, went down in their first try. The other unbeaten man, John Hirschi '56, was by a narrow margin.

The Techmen started fast, as Dave Nutt '55, improving consistently, made his way to a 6-4 lead at the end. Dick Daniel '55 and Walt Lawson '54, went down in their first try. The other unbeaten man, John Hirschi '56, was by a narrow margin.

The Techmen started fast, as Dave Nutt '55, improving consistently, made his way to a 6-4 lead at the end. Dick Daniel '55 and Walt Lawson '54, went down in their first try. The other unbeaten man, John Hirschi '56, was by a narrow margin.

The Techmen started fast, as Dave Nutt '55, improving consistently, made his way to a 6-4 lead at the end. Dick Daniel '55 and Walt Lawson '54, went down in their first try. The other unbeaten man, John Hirschi '56, was by a narrow margin.

The Techmen started fast, as Dave Nutt '55, improving consistently, made his way to a 6-4 lead at the end. Dick Daniel '55 and Walt Lawson '54, went down in their first try. The other unbeaten man, John Hirschi '56, was by a narrow margin.

The Techmen started fast, as Dave Nutt '55, improving consistently, made his way to a 6-4 lead at the end. Dick Daniel '55 and Walt Lawson '54, went down in their first try. The other unbeaten man, John Hirschi '56, was by a narrow margin.

The Techmen started fast, as Dave Nutt '55, improving consistently, made his way to a 6-4 lead at the end. Dick Daniel '55 and Walt Lawson '54, went down in their first try. The other unbeaten man, John Hirschi '56, was by a narrow margin.