At the Dormitory Council meeting last Monday, it was announced that the tickets for the Dorm Spring Dance on April 18 will be sold as a single unit in making room assignments, not as a group of separate individual tickets. It was also announced that at the May meeting, residents will show extreme discretion for the night of the dance and all such offenses will be reported to both student government and the administration.

Darkroom

Dorm Council has made all the advance arrangements on the Dorm M.I.T. darkrooms, and is collecting the money from the students for the use. One half of the money collected will go to the dorm, and the other half will be returned to the students. It is hoped that this will happen shortly and the darkrooms will again be open for the public.

The conference which opens on Geneva at April 26 will constitute an important step in the solution of the Far East problem. It is a surprise. Students are expected to vacate the dormitories, and to move away from all entrances so that the drill will be successful. The residents are expected to remain in their dormitories. Both Dean Pessott and Dean Bower, the representatives of the Dorm Committee to the regional assembly of general student unions. Lounges now available are very limited and occupancy is not complete in all groups only. The main problem is to find room for the additional lounges.

Geneva Conference is Topic of First In Series Of Articles

The following is the first in a series of articles political and economic topics of current interest being presented to the student body associated with the Center for International Affairs.

by Prof. W. W. Bowers

The conference which opens on Geneva at April 26 will constitute an important step in the solution of the Far East problem. It is a surprise. Students are expected to vacate the dormitories, and to move away from all entrances so that the drill will be successful. The residents are expected to remain in their dormitories. Both Dean Pessott and Dean Bower, the representatives of the Dorm Committee to the regional assembly of general student unions. Lounges now available are very limited and occupancy is not complete in all groups only. The main problem is to find room for the additional lounges.

Geneva Conference is Topic of First In Series Of Articles

The following is the first in a series of articles political and economic topics of current interest being presented to the student body associated with the Center for International Affairs.

by Prof. W. W. Bowers

The conference which opens on Geneva at April 26 will constitute an important step in the solution of the Far East problem. It is a surprise. Students are expected to vacate the dormitories, and to move away from all entrances so that the drill will be successful. The residents are expected to remain in their dormitories. Both Dean Pessott and Dean Bower, the representatives of the Dorm Committee to the regional assembly of general student unions. Lounges now available are very limited and occupancy is not complete in all groups only. The main problem is to find room for the additional lounges.

Geneva Conference is Topic of First In Series Of Articles

The following is the first in a series of articles political and economic topics of current interest being presented to the student body associated with the Center for International Affairs.

by Prof. W. W. Bowers

The conference which opens on Geneva at April 26 will constitute an important step in the solution of the Far East problem. It is a surprise. Students are expected to vacate the dormitories, and to move away from all entrances so that the drill will be successful. The residents are expected to remain in their dormitories. Both Dean Pessott and Dean Bower, the representatives of the Dorm Committee to the regional assembly of general student unions. Lounges now available are very limited and occupancy is not complete in all groups only. The main problem is to find room for the additional lounges.