THE EVCY TOWER
by Berthold Lippit '50
The other day in the dorm my eyes fell on a beard. It was a young, somber, almost fuzzy, beard. It grew on a lady's face. She was an old student in a random dorm and she seemed to be a symbol of the new concrete that was being built in the dormitory. The picture was of a woman in Paris and she was surrounded by a cloud of smoke. She looked beautiful. She looked like a hopeful beard. Hav- ing passed it on the west end of the dorm, I read the beard as a symbol of the new concrete that was being built in the dormitory.
